Dr. Adewuya joined the faculty in 2001 and teaches Greek and New Testament, with specific focus on Pauline Literature. He is the author of Holiness and Community in 2 Cor. 6:14-7:1 – A Study of Paul’s View of Communal Holiness in the Corinthians Correspondence (New York: Peter Lang, 2001); Transformed by Grace: Paul’s View of Holiness in Romans 6-8 (Eugene Oregon: Cascade Books, 2004); Transformados Por Gracia: Perspectiva Paulina de la Santidad en Romanos 6-8 (Eugene Oregon: Cascade Books, 2006), and A Commentary on 1 & 2 Corinthians, ISG 42 (England: SPCK, 2009). He has also published academic articles in various journals and written essay chapters in books. He is a regular contributor to Precepts for Living, a Sunday School Commentary for African Americans published by Urban Ministries Inc., Chicago and the Evangelical Commentaries of the Church of God Cleveland, Tennessee. His two research interests are ‘Communal Holiness’ and the development of an African interpretative approach to the Pauline literature.

Dr. Adewuya is an active member of the Society of Pentecostal Studies, the Wesleyan Theological Society, and the Society of Biblical Literature where he has served as member of the Steering Committee of the Disputed Pauline Literature section since 2006. He is married to Grace, the founder of the Amazing Grace Christian Foundation, USA, a ministry that is committed to helping and caring for less privileged women and children in Tarlac, Philippines. Both of them were resident missionaries in the Philippines from 1984-2001 and continue to be involved with active ministry there. They have four children, Toluwalope, Iyanuloluwa, Ruth, and Jonathan.
