The Graduate Catalog General Disclaimer

The catalog of the Pentecostal Theological Seminary (PTS) represents the offerings and requirements in effect at the time of publication. The course offerings and requirements are continuously under examination and revision. However, adequate and reasonable notice will be given to students affected by any change. The Seminary reserves the right, through its established procedures, to modify the requirements for admission and graduation and to change other rules, regulations, and provisions, including those stated in this catalog and other publications, and to refuse admission to any student, or to require the withdrawal of a student, if it is determined to be in the interest of the student or the Seminary. The established procedures for making such changes are calculated to protect the Seminary's integrity and the student's best interest and welfare. A requirement for admission or graduation, when altered, is not made retroactive unless the change is to the student's advantage. All students are subject to the same policies. This catalog is not intended to state contractual terms and should not be regarded as a contract between the student and the Seminary. Enrollment of all students is subject to these conditions. Graduate students must assume full responsibility for knowledge of rules and regulations of PTS and requirements for the chosen degree program. Any exceptions to the policy stated in this catalog must be approved by the Vice President for Academics, in consultation with the President and in keeping with the policies established by the Board of Directors.

OUR MISSION

The mission of the Pentecostal Theological Seminary is to form, support, and resource women and men for Holy Spirit-filled, Holy Spirit-led Christian ministry in today's world. The Seminary is dedicated to carry out this task as an act of obedience to God under the Lordship of Jesus Christ in the power of the Holy Spirit. The Seminary is committed to the absolute authority of Scripture and to the Holiness-Pentecostal interpretation of the Christian faith as set forth in the Declaration of Faith of the Church of God. The Seminary seeks to be a community of faith, worship, and study, nurturing covenantal relationships and creating awareness of the world mission and global diversity of the Church. It is the intention of the Seminary to help students integrate life and learning in such a way that they may acquire the maturity and professional competency needed to carry out the mission of the Church in the world. As a denominationally sponsored institution, the Pentecostal Theological Seminary is fully committed to the spiritual, doctrinal, and ethical emphases of the Church of God and is firmly dedicated to serving and training its ministry.

OUR VISION

From its beginning, the Pentecostal Theological Seminary has followed a model for ministerial development drawn from the Scriptures and the heritage of Wesleyan-Pentecostalism: the community of faith. The underlying thesis of the model has been that equipping persons for ministry is the responsibility of the church and must be done in the context of being the church. The Seminary is the church of God gathered for theological education. This conviction requires the Seminary to continually seek to conform to the nature of the church, to see its mission as an expression of the mission of the church, and to maintain an interdependent relationship with the larger church. These realities constitute the governing vision of the nature of the Seminary.

The Seminary is committed to conform to the nature of the church as established in the Holiness-Pentecostal heritage of the Church of God. It continually strives to ensure that all relationships, processes, and structures of the Seminary are governed by the biblical standards for God's people. The Seminary seeks to conceptualize and approach these standards with theological integrity using the same methods of discerning, critical reflection and action being taught to the students. It is the vision of the Seminary that all institutional endeavors must honor and strengthen its existence as a Pentecostal community of faith. The administration, faculty, staff, and student body share regular times of fellowship and worship.

The Seminary understands that its mission must serve the global mission of the Church of God. This conviction gives rise to a continuing challenge to set priorities that reflect the larger church and at the same time recognize the limits of its calling and resources. Even though the denomination has opened graduate-level seminaries in other parts of the world, The Pentecostal Theological Seminary remains the flagship of ministerial training for the denomination. The Church of God Master Plan of Education states, "That all graduate programs be networked with the Theological Seminary" (Church of God Educational Handbook, p. 21). It is the vision of the Seminary to serve the Church of God and the Pentecostal movement worldwide as a center for Pentecostal scholarship and training. Within this vision, the Seminary is committed to maintaining a high enrollment of international students and to networking with other seminaries around the world. The faculty frequently serve as visiting instructors in other countries and international scholars often visit the Seminary to teach.

The Seminary understands itself to be an interdependent organ of the larger church. It therefore attempts to be responsive to the needs of the church in its various expressions, but with special emphasis upon the needs of congregations. It strives to be informed by those needs and fulfill its role in the ongoing reformation of the church. Therefore, the Seminary intentionally maintains interactive channels of communication with the other expressions of the Church of God, including the Executive Committee, the Executive Council, Departmental Leaders, State and Territorial Overseers, and representatives of districts and local congregations. It also recognizes that its position as a member of the higher education academy places special responsibility on the Seminary to serve as a link between the denomination and other expressions of the family of God. Under God, the Seminary also strives to be a research/resource center to the church and its public voice in relation to the contemporary challenges and issues in the church and the larger society.

THEOLOGICAL COMMITMENT

The Church of God Declaration of Faith

We believe:

1. In the verbal inspiration of the Bible.
2. In one God eternally existing in three persons; namely the Father, Son and Holy Ghost.
3. That Jesus Christ is the only begotten Son of the Father, conceived of the Holy Ghost, and born of the Virgin Mary. That Jesus was crucified, buried, and raised from the dead. That He ascended to heaven and is today at the right hand of the Father as the Intercessor.
4. That all have sinned and come short of the glory of God and that repentance is commanded of God for all and necessary for forgiveness of sins.
5. That justification, regeneration, and the new birth are wrought by faith in the blood of Jesus Christ.
6. In sanctification subsequent to the new birth, through faith in the blood of Christ; through the Word and by the Holy Ghost.
7. Holiness to be God's standard of living for His people.
8. In the baptism with the Holy Ghost subsequent to a clean heart.

9. In speaking with other tongues as the Spirit gives utterance and that it is the initial evidence of the baptism of the Holy Ghost.
10. In the bodily resurrection; eternal life for the righteous, and eternal punishment for the wicked.
11. In the premillennial second coming of Jesus. First, to resurrect the righteous dead and to catch away the living saints to Him in the air. Second, to reign on the earth a thousand years.
12. In the Lord's Supper and washing of the saints' feet.
13. Divine healing is provided for all in the Atonement.
14. In water baptism by immersion, and all who repent should be baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

CHARTER AND ACCREDITATION

The Seminary is sponsored by the Church of God in Cleveland, Tennessee, and operates under a charter of incorporation from the State of Tennessee and Bradley County. The School and its programs are approved by the State Approving Agency for the training of eligible persons under the terms of the Veterans Education Benefits, and is authorized under Federal law to enroll international students. The Seminary operates in Tennessee under an exemption from the Tennessee Higher Education Commission.

The Pentecostal Theological Seminary is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools-Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC). For information concerning the accreditation of the Pentecostal Theological Seminary, contact the SACSCOC, 1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, GA, 30033-4097, or call 404-679-4500.

The Pentecostal Theological Seminary is accredited by the Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada (ATS) and to offer the Master of Divinity, the Master of Arts in Discipleship and Christian Formation (MADCF), the Master of Arts in Church Ministries (MACM), the Masters in Theological Studies (MTS), the Master of Arts in Counseling (MAC), the Master of Arts in Clinical Mental Health Counseling (MACMHC) and the Doctor of Ministry degrees. For information concerning the accreditation of the Pentecostal Theological Seminary contact the Board of Commissioners of the Association of Theological Schools, 10 Summit Park Drive, Pittsburgh, PA, 15275-1103, or call 412-788-6505, or email at ats.edu.

The Seminary is certified by Asociación para La Educación Teológica Hispana (AETH) to award certificates in Wesleyan-Pentecostal Biblical Studies, Wesleyan-Pentecostal Theology, and Wesleyan-Pentecostal Ministry. Inquiries regarding AETH certification should be directed to PO Box 677848. Orlando, FL 32867. Phone: 720-535-5435. Website: www.aeth.org.

The Seminary is approved by SACS-COC to offer programs fully online and by ATS to offer the following degrees fully online: MADCF, MACM, MTS, MAC and MACMHC; and the two-thirds of the following degrees online, MDiv and DMin.

The Seminary is certified the Tennessee Higher Education Commission (THEC) as an educational institution authorized to operate educational programs beyond secondary education, directs the commission to maintain and publish on its web site a list of postsecondary educational institutions meeting the requirements of subdivision (a)(6) with its primary campus domiciled in this state or subdivision (a)(11).

The Seminary is also a member of National Council for State Authorization Reciprocity Agreements (NC-SARA) as it seeks to operate in various states. NC-SARA lays out a framework for state-level reciprocity, including a governance structure, implementation by the four regional higher education compacts (MHEC, NEBHE, SREB, WICHE), a National Council for SARA to ensure comprehensive national coverage, and a financial plan to support operations.

The Seminary is also on the list of Tennessee List of Schools Approved for Veterans Training (GI Bill).

PHYSICAL FACILITIES

The Pentecostal Theological Seminary is located at 900 Walker Street, NE, Cleveland, Tennessee. A contemporary, two-story, white-brick structure (Gause Administration Building), houses the administrative offices, faculty offices, the chapel, classrooms, and audiovisual facilities. An outdoor courtyard joins the Curtsinger Ministry Center, a 24,000 square foot structure housing the Cecil B. and Evelyn Knight Conference Hall, Student Services Offices, Church of God Chaplains Commission, faculty offices, labs, classrooms, and the H.G. Poitier Student Commons.

NONDISCRIMINATION POLICY

The Seminary does not discriminate on the basis of race, gender, handicap, age, class, veteran status, or national/ethnic origin in the administration of any of its policies. It is the policy of the Seminary in its common life and classroom to use inclusive language and to exercise respect and Christian love toward each member of the Seminary community. The Seminary, as part of the Church of God, recognizes homosexuality as an unscriptural lifestyle which precludes church membership, ministerial credentials, and, therefore, participation in this Seminary.

Furthermore, in specific adherence to the Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, the Pentecostal Theological Seminary does not condone discrimination against students, faculty or staff based upon sex in any of its programs or functions, including but not limited to admissions, educational programs, and employment. Sexual misconduct is a type of sex discrimination and is prohibited by Title IX and by the Pentecostal Theological Seminary.

The Pentecostal Theological Seminary is committed to responding immediately and effectively to any reports of possible discrimination based on sex. An individual who has questions regarding sexual harassment or sex discrimination should contact the PTS Title IX Coordinator.

The Title IX Coordinator at the Pentecostal Theological Seminary is Karen Holley. She is charged with monitoring compliance with Title IX regulations. Questions regarding Title IX, as well as questions and concerns regarding noncompliance, may be directed to her. Contact information for Karen Holley, Title IX Coordinator:

Admissions

ELIGIBILITY

Admission to the Pentecostal Theological Seminary is based on two factors as these demonstrate potential for ministry in the kingdom of God.

First, evidence of academic ability is normally assessed on the basis of the completion of a baccalaureate degree from a college accredited by an association holding membership in the Council on Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA), holding membership in the Association of Canadian Universities and Colleges or on the basis of the equivalent of that level of educational achievement. International applicants who do not possess a degree from an American college institution will be accepted on the basis of an equivalent level of preparation. The application of a person from a non-regionally accredited institution will be reviewed on an individual basis by the Admissions Committee. In order to do well in seminary a person ordinarily needs to have completed a degree with an average GPA of 2.5 or higher. Applicants whose transcripts do not reflect this will be placed on academic probation or be called upon to submit other evidence of ability and/or incentive. Such evidence may be submitted in the form of recommendations and other supporting documents (essays, publications, etc.).

Second, the Pentecostal Theological Seminary expects each applicant to exhibit spiritual maturity devotedly given to ministry and worship and daily manifestation of the fruit of the Spirit in personal conduct and human relations. Evidence of spiritual maturity will be assessed on the basis of the applicant's description of a personal sense of calling, of experiences in the ministry and the individual's dedication and spiritual maturity as perceived by those who have furnished recommendations.

PROCEDURE

Requirements for Degree Seeking Student Admission:

1. A completed Application for Admission.
2. A $75 non-refundable application fee (U.S. currency) payable to the Pentecostal Theological Seminary (must accompany the Application for Admission).
3. An official transcript from each accredited institution of higher learning attended documenting the awarding of a completed degree. In the U.S., "official" transcripts must be sent directly from each such institution to the Seminary. Transcripts from other countries may need to be validated by the proper authorities. (Photocopies are not acceptable.)
4. An autobiography describing the applicant's personal background (birthplace, family life, employment), church affiliation/credentialing, Christian experience (conversion, regeneration, sanctification, Spirit baptism, divine healing, ministry calling), and reason for applying to this graduate school. This document should be typed, double-spaced with one inch margins.
5. Three letters of recommendation submitted on the printed forms provided by the Seminary.
6. A background check initiated by the applicant based on instructions provided by the Seminary. Cost for the background check is covered by the application fee.

Requirements for Non-Degree Seeking Student Admission:

1. A completed Application for Admission.
2. A $75 non-refundable application fee (U.S. currency) payable to the Pentecostal Theological Seminary (must accompany the Application for Admission).
3. An official transcript from each accredited institution of higher learning attended documenting the awarding of a completed degree. In the U.S., "official" transcripts must be sent directly from each such institution to the Seminary. Transcripts from other countries may need to be validated by the proper authorities. (Photocopies are not acceptable.)
4. Non-degree seeking students may pursue up to 14 semester hours in this classification after which they must consult with the Registrar or Vice President for Academics to justify continuation in this category. Before students are accepted into a degree program, they must complete all steps for the degree seeking student.

Requirements for Audit Only Student Admission:

1. A completed Application for Admission.

2. A $75 non-refundable application fee (U.S. currency) payable to the Pentecostal Theological Seminary (must accompany the Application for Admission).

If an audit only student decides to later become a degree seeking student, he/she must submit the required documents and meet all admission requirements set forth in the Degree Seeking Student section, on the previous page.

Requirements for Transient Student Admission:

1. A completed Application for Admission.
2. A $75 non-refundable application fee (U.S. currency) payable to the Pentecostal Theological Seminary (must accompany the Application for Admission).
3. An official transcript from each accredited institution of higher learning attended documenting the awarding of a completed degree. In the U.S., "official" transcripts must be sent directly from each such institution to the Seminary. Transcripts from other countries may need to be validated by the proper authorities. (Photocopies are not acceptable.)

Requirements for Special Student Admission:

1. A completed Application for Admission.
2. A $75 non-refundable application fee (U.S. currency) payable to the Pentecostal Theological Seminary (must accompany the Application for Admission).
3. An autobiography describing the applicant's personal background (birthplace, family life, employment), church affiliation/credentialing, Christian experience (conversion, regeneration, sanctification, Spirit baptism, divine healing, ministry calling), and reason for applying to this graduate school. This document should be typed, double-spaced with one inch margins.
4. Three letters of recommendation submitted on the printed forms provided by the Seminary.
5. A Ministerial Experience Questionnaire listing each segment of ministry involvement with a brief description (including dates) of ministry activity.

Special Students are a limited number of qualified applicants who are credentialed ministers (with preference given to Church of God ministers and special consideration given to sister denominations). The total number of special students may be as many as, but not exceed, fifteen percent (15%) of the students in degree programs. Special students are those who do not possess a baccalaureate degree or its educational equivalent and may be admitted under the following guidelines:

1. The applicant must be at least 30 years of age and must have been a full-time minister for 10 years.

2. Once accepted, the special student must complete 14 hours of class work and maintain a 2.5 or higher GPA for those 14 credit hours.

Once a special student completes the above criteria, he/she must apply to be accepted into a regular degree program.

Requirements for College Senior Admission:

College Seniors may be accepted for dual enrollment provided the combined course load does not exceed 16 semester hours. College Senior applicants must be enrolled in their final semester of undergraduate studies and must submit the following application documents:

1. A completed Application for Admission;
2. A $75 non-refundable application fee (U.S. currency) payable to the Pentecostal Theological Seminary (must accompany the Application for Admission); and
3. An official transcript from the accredited institution of higher learning where they are currently enrolled. (Photocopies are not acceptable).

International Student Admissions

Documents

International applicants must submit the following documents before an admission request will be considered:

1. Application for Admission form.
2. An autobiography describing the applicant's personal background (birthplace, family life, employment), church affiliation/credentialing, Christian experience (conversion, regeneration, sanctification, Spirit baptism, divine healing, ministry calling), and reason for applying to this graduate school. This document should be typed, double-spaced with one inch margins
3. A $75 non-refundable application fee (U.S. currency) payable to the Pentecostal Theological Seminary must accompany the Application for Admission.
4. Official transcripts from all previous colleges/universities attended. (Photocopies are not acceptable.) Transcripts from non-American institutions must be evaluated and converted to the American Grade Point Average system. Transcripts in a language other than English must also include an official English translation. Agencies recommended to perform these services are World Education Services, Inc. (www.wes.org) or Educational Credential Evaluators, Inc (www.ece.org). The Seminary will only accept applicants whose university/college degrees are found equivalent to U.S. university/college degrees.
5. International applicants seeking to enter the United States and attend classes on campus must provide an affidavit of financial sponsorship. This is a letter and notarized statement from a bank official demonstrating availability of funds for your support and educational cost of attendance. The international applicant who will online enroll in online courses is not required to provide financial sponsorship. Church of God international applicants who have been approved for financial sponsorship by Church of God World Missions should submit their letter of approval along with their admission application.

6. Letters of recommendation from non-family members (pastor, supervisor, and/or professors) who can attest to your commitment to Christ, church involvement, leadership ability, human sensitivity, academic ability and facility in interpersonal relationships. (Church of God international applicants who have been approved by the Church of God World Missions Educational Committee will submit recommendations from their eld director, regional superintendent, and overseer, using the forms provided in the admission packet.)
7. TOEFL scores (for applicants from non-English speaking countries).

Admission documents should be submitted to the Seminary's Admissions Office at: admissions@ptseminary.edu, or by regular mail:

Admissions Office

Pentecostal Theological Seminary P.O. Box 3330

Cleveland, Tennessee 37320-3330 USA

All admissions documents must be received by the Admissions Office before admission acceptance will be considered.

TOEFL

International applicants of non-English speaking countries must take the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) examination or demonstrate English proficiency through some other objective means and/or personal recommendations.

For a TOEFL Bulletin of Information and Application Form visit the Educational Testing Service website at www.ets.org, or write to:

Test of English as a Foreign Language CN 6154

Princeton, NJ 08541-6154

USA

Applicants must earn a total score of 80 (internet-based test), with the following minimum section requirements

Reading: 20 Listening: 18 Speaking: 20 Writing: 22

TOEFL scores will be provided directly to the Pentecostal Theological Seminary by listing the Seminary's designated institution code of 1763 on the exam.

Student Visa

When admission acceptance is granted by the Seminary, international applicants must obtain an F-1 Visa to attend the Pentecostal Theological Seminary. Contact the Office of Enrollment Management to request an I-20 document at wwriston@ptseminary.edu, or call (423) 478-7250. International applicants should also notify the Office of Student Services if the spouse and/or children will accompany them.

Deadlines

The application deadlines for international applicants are as follows:

April 1 for Fall term

October 1 for Spring term

International applicants will be notified of the Admissions Committee decision within two weeks of being considered.

Enrollment

The Seminary accepts prospective students for enrollment in a full course of study that leads to the attainment of a specific educational or professional objective. Internationals with a visa permitting student enrollment in the United States must be enrolled as full-time students in on-campus courses. Full-time enrollment is equivalent to a minimum of nine (9) credit hours for the fall term and nine (9) credit hours for the spring term.

READMISSION

If for any reason a student leaves the Pentecostal Theological Seminary, either voluntarily or involuntarily, formally or informally, and later wishes to return, that person must apply for readmission. Request for readmission will be reviewed on an individual basis by the Admissions Committee and, in certain circumstances, by the Ministerial Development Committee.

Students who have not attended Seminary for more than one year must submit:

1. A completed Application for Admission; and
2. A $75 non-refundable application fee (U.S. currency) payable to the Pentecostal Theological Seminary (must accompany the Application for Admission).

ACCEPTANCE

Admission requests from applicants completing all steps of the admission process will be presented to the Admissions Committee. The Admissions Committee determines if an applicant is accepted and the admission status of that applicant based on the admission documents submitted by the applicant. Applicants will be notified of the Admissions Committee's decision.

Official Acceptance

Applicants meeting all admission eligibility requirements will be granted official acceptance by the Admissions Committee. Students entering with provisional or conditional status must meet the requirement for official acceptance before official acceptance is awarded.

Provisional Acceptance

If the Admissions Committee believes an applicant has the potential for success in the degree program to which admission is sought, the applicant may be accepted as a non-degree seeking student with provisional status. The applicant with provisional status must meet the following requirements to move from provisional to official acceptance:

Complete a minimum of 14 credit hours; and Earn a cumulative GPA of 2.5 or better.

The provisional designation will be removed once the student meets these and all other admission requirements set by the Seminary. Applicants accepted on a provisional enrollment basis are limited to a maximum of 14 credit hours the first term of enrollment. A provisional status student with a cumulative GPA below 2.5 for the first term of enrollment is subject to immediate dismissal. The applicant accepted on a provisional basis may be considered for but not guaranteed scholarships, need-based assistance grants, and student employment.

Conditional Acceptance

Seminary applicants who have submitted a completed admission application form, an up-to-date autobiography, and an unofficial transcript may be accepted as a regular student with conditional enrollment status. Those students with conditional status have their first term of enrollment to submit all of the remaining required admission material. The applicant will be withdrawn from the program if he/she does not complete the admission requirements by the end of the first term. The student will not be eligible to register for a second term until the conditional status is removed. Any request for an exception to this designation of acceptance must be submitted to the Vice President for Academics through an academic petition.

Registration

New Students

Students enrolling in their first term at PTS are required to complete New Student Orientation prior to registering for classes. New Student Orientation (NSO) takes place online each fall and spring term and is made up of a series of videos. These videos are accessible through the internet and will introduce and familiarize new students to the Seminary's academic policies, degree programs, financial aid, and other topics necessary for a successful seminary experience.

Current Students

Current students must register at the designated time established by the Seminary. This Priority Registration is scheduled to take place in April, for summer J-Terms and fall, and in November, for January J-Term and Spring.

Late Registration

Students who do not register for classes during the designated time periods will be billed a late registration fee. This includes current students who delay registration until the start of the new term.

Registration Changes

During Registration, a student may drop/add a course without penalty. However, once the term begins, students wishing to change their class schedule must submit a drop/add request form to the Registrar. A drop/add fee will be billed to the student's account for each drop/add event. A drop/add request form is available on the shared files folder in the student database.

On-campus and SYNC classes may be added up to two weeks after the first day of class. A student adding a class late is responsible for making up delinquent course work. Online courses may be added up to one week prior to the start of term. (See the Online Learning section of this catalog for more information concerning online course restrictions.)

A student may drop a course within the first 2 weeks of class (fall and spring) or the first 2 days of class (J-Terms). The dropped course is removed from the student's record. (See the Refund Policy located in the Tuition and Fees section of this catalog to determine the student's financial obligation for a dropped course.)

Withdrawal from a class is permitted any time after the drop deadline and before the last day of class. A student will use the drop/add form to request a course withdrawal. Course withdrawal does not affect a student's GPA but may affect the student's academic progress (attempted/earned calculation). (See the Satisfactory Academic Progress section of this catalog for more information.)

Leave of Absence

Students who were not enrolled the previous semester (fall or spring) must notify the Registrar's Office of their intent to return to PTS before registration may occur. If the student's absence was just one term (fall or spring) and at his/her departure, the student left in good standing, the student may proceed with course registration. (Good standing means the student earned Satisfactory Academic Progress and left no outstanding balance on his/ her student account.)

A student with a 13-month or more break in enrollment, must apply for readmission with the Admissions Office before registration can occur. (See the Admissions Section of this catalog for more information concerning the readmission policy.) The student may contact the Registrar's Office to register once readmission is granted by the Seminary's Admissions Committee.

Cancelled Classes

On occasion, the Vice President for Academics finds it necessary to cancel a scheduled class most often due to low student enrollment in that specific course. When this occurs, the Registrar's Office will remove all student registration from that course and notify each student enrolled that the course was cancelled. The student may elect to leave his/her registration as is or may need to select another course as this event may affect the financial aid award. A student is not responsible for course tuition or drop/add fees if a course is cancelled by the Vice President for Academics.

Unofficial Withdrawal

Unofficial withdrawal occurs when a student ceases to attend class, does not complete any course work, and does not notify the Registrar's Office of such action. In this case, the student receives a failing grade for all registered courses. Courses must be repeated to remove the failing grades from the transcript. For more information on the effects of unofficial withdrawals, see the Satisfactory Academic Progress policy found in both the Academics section and the Financial Aid section.

FINANCIAL REGISTRATION

Prior to the beginning of classes each term, all students are required to submit to the Business Office a Promissory Note indicating how they plan to pay their tuition and fees for the semester. Failure to complete financial registration will result in cancellation of the student's class schedule.

PAYMENT OF BILLS

The following payment options are available.

Full Cash Payment: Must be made on or prior to the first day of the semester (checks and credit cards accepted-Discover, MasterCard and Visa). Accounts not paid in full on or before the first day of the semester will be assessed a $25 late fee each month.

Students who pay their account balances in full on or before the first day of the semester will receive a 1% discount on net tuition. Net tuition is the full tuition charge less tuition discounts and institutional scholarships.

Deferred Payment: Provides a plan for students who are unable to pay the semester charges in full at registration. A $50 deferred payment fee is added to the student account and the balance is divided into three (3) equal monthly installments. The first payment is required on the first day of the semester. Payments made after the specified dates will be subject to a $25/monthly late fee.

Scholarships: Several scholarships are available to new and returning students. See the Financial Aid section of this catalog for more information.

Federal Financial Aid: For information on student loans and work study program, please refer to Financial Aid.

Special Arrangements: Arrangements for billing to a third party (Church of God Missions, employers, home churches, etc.) must be made prior to registration with the PTS Business Office.

All tuition and fees are due and payable in full by the first day of the semester unless special arrangements have been made in advance with the Business Office or a student plans to use the deferred payment plan. Students whose accounts are not current will not be allowed to register for subsequent classes and will be denied request for transcripts and diplomas.

REFUND POLICY

Any student dropping a course(s) or withdrawing totally after registration, without completing the necessary forms and receiving the consent of the Registrar, will not receive a refund. Failure to attend classes does not guarantee a refund. Students may change or drop courses anytime during the first two academic weeks of each semester. If a course is dropped and a substitute course taken, there is no charge other than the $10 drop/add fee. When a course is dropped (or withdrawn from) and no substitute taken, the following refund policy will apply for the Fall and Spring semesters, and the brief refund period for J-Term Classes.

1. No refund on fees.

2. Refund on tuition:

-Up to and including the first day of class---100%

-First two weeks (2nd-12th day) (2 days for J-Term courses)---80%
(20% of tuition plus fees are due)

-Third week (13th-19th day) (3 days for J-Term courses)---50%
(50% of tuition plus fees are due)

-No refund after the third week (20th day).

(100% tuition plus fees are due)

3. Read the Academic Progress and Financial Aid Policy for a detailed explanation of how financial aid eligibility is affected by student course withdrawals.

DELINQUENT ACCOUNTS

PTS begins in-house collection procedures on the outstanding account balances of students who have not fulfilled the conditions of their Promissory Note or who have not made payments for at least 30 days. This procedure involves a series of letters, emails, and/or telephone calls from the PTS Business Office.

If at the end of 120 days the account has not been paid in full or satisfactory arrangements have not been made to pay off the debt, the account will be referred to the Seminary's collection agency. A student whose account has been referred to outside collection agencies will be required to pay all legal and collection costs in addition to the outstanding balance. These costs can be an additional 40-60% of the unpaid balance.

A student with a delinquent account is ineligible for additional enrollment until the account balance is paid off.

FINANCIAL AID

MASTER'S PROGRAMS

Since its inception, the Seminary has been concerned with partnering with students by providing opportunities for financial assistance as they prepare for ministry. Seminary Administration, with the approval of the Board of Directors, has established two agencies to represent it in the administration of financial aid to students. They are the Financial Aid Office and the Financial Aid Committee.

Degree-seeking students are eligible to apply for Seminary scholarships, outside scholarships, federal work study, federal loans, and alternative loans if needed. Non-degree-seeking students may apply for Seminary scholarships, outside scholarships, and alternative loans. Students who do not have US citizenship or Permanent Resident status may apply for Seminary scholarships, outside scholarships, and private/non-federal loans.

Prospective students must be accepted for admission to the Seminary to be eligible for financial aid. Students applying for financial assistance, including loans and scholarships, do so by completing the financial aid process which includes completion of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and the Seminary's Application for Financial Aid. Steps to apply will be sent to applicants once they begin the admission process.

Each person applying for financial aid at the Seminary should apply after January 1 and before the priority deadline of April 15 for returning students, or June 15 for new students in order to receive priority consideration for the following Fall and Spring semesters. All financial aid is awarded for one academic year. Students must reapply for financial aid each academic year. Financial assistance is not automatically renewed.

A student wishing to receive financial aid must first submit a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and a Pentecostal Theological Seminary Application for Financial Aid to the Financial Aid Office (both forms are available through the Seminary's student portal). This constitutes the student's formal request to the Seminary for financial assistance. Students must be enrolled full time to be eligible for scholarships, with the exception of the Care Ministry Scholarship, Spousal Scholarship, College Senior Scholarship, Alumni Scholarship, State Overseer Scholarship, and Honors Ministry Scholarship. For financial aid purposes, full-time enrollment is 9 credit hours during regular semesters (Fall and Spring) and 6 credit hours in the summer J-terms. Half-time enrollment is 6-8 credit hours during the regular semester (Fall and Spring) or 3 hours for J-terms. Students must be at least half-time to be eligible for Stafford loans. Students are eligible for one scholarships per semester with the exception of any special incentive scholarships that may be offered for one semester only.

FEDERAL LOAN PROGRAMS

The federal loan programs are available to PTS students. To be eligible, a student must be a US citizen, US national or an eligible non-citizen. Students must also be in compliance with the Selective Service and must not be in default or owe a refund on any Title IV program. To apply for federal loans, students must complete a Master's Promissory Note (MPN) and Entrance Counseling at www.studentloans.gov. Students must also complete a loan request form and submit to the Financial Aid Office: finaid@ptseminary.edu.

FAFSA FORM

The basis of determining the need of a student will be an analysis provided by the Student Aid Report (SAR) based on the information submitted by the student on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) as distributed by the U.S. Department of Education online at www.fafsa.ed.gov. Students without a current Federal Student Aid (FSA) ID number will need to apply for one at <https://fsaid.ed.gov/npas/index.htm>. The FSA ID number is needed to sign your FAFSA or your Master's Promissory Note (MPN) or access other Federal websites regarding federal aid. Steps to apply for financial aid will be sent to the applicant once he or she begins the admission process. All students can view the steps to apply for financial aid in the Populi system (under Forms) or request a copy at finaid@ptseminary.edu.

FINANCIAL AID PROGRAMS: FINANCING YOUR EDUCATION

PTS is especially sensitive to the financial challenges students face today in seeking to finance graduate education for master's programs. Fund-raising by the Seminary to increase the number of scholarships continue to be a priority at PTS.

Most students are financing their programs through personal savings, employment, church support, loans and scholarships.

PTS encourages careful planning and stands ready to assist students in identifying all possible financial resources. The process begins by completing and returning the appropriate forms to PTS for financial aid and scholarships.

To have financial aid available for the first day of registration, deadlines have been established for submitting all documents necessary to process financial aid. The student should be sure to check the calendar or call the financial aid office so that he or she will not miss the deadlines established for fall, spring and summer courses.

All federal aid is awarded without regard to race, gender, handicap, age, and class or national/ethnic origin. The amount of Seminary funds awarded are subject to need and availability of funds.

Master's Degree Program Scholarships

Students applying for scholarships and loans must complete a PTS Application for Financial Aid and submit it to the Financial Aid Office by the priority deadline (April 15). Also, a Free Application for Federal Student Aid Application (FAFSA) must be completed at www.fafsa.ed.gov. Students are encouraged to contact the Seminary's Financial Aid Office to verify that all financial aid paperwork has been received at finaid@ptseminary.edu. Scholarships are applied toward tuition costs only. All fees (registration, technology, application and other related fees) are the student's responsibility. A maximum of one scholarship per semester will be granted.

Academic Scholarships for First Year Students: Three academic scholarships of $4,000 per student are awarded to first-year students who graduate (current year) from a Church of God college or university. The president of each institution makes recommendations for these scholarships by letter to the Seminary's Financial Aid Office. A student must have a minimum undergraduate GPA of 3.5; must complete and submit an Application for Financial Aid to the Financial Aid Office; and complete a FAFSA to be considered for this scholarship. Students must be enrolled full time (9 credit hours or more) during the regular fall or spring semester to be eligible for this scholarship.

New Incoming Academic Scholarship: Five academic scholarships of $4,000 per student are awarded to five first-year students with a graduating undergraduate cumulative GPA of 3.5 or higher. A student must complete and submit an Application for Financial Aid to the Financial Aid Office, and complete a FAFSA to be considered for this scholarship. Students must be enrolled full time (9 credit hours or more) during the regular fall or spring semester to be eligible for this scholarship.

Academic Scholarships for Second and Third Year Students: Two academic scholarships are available for students who have completed their first year of seminary study. Recipients must have a minimum GPA of 3.7 in order to qualify. Students must also demonstrate leadership, spiritual maturity, and submit recommendations from two professors. The amount available for any given student is $4,000 per year. Applicants must complete and submit an Application for Financial Aid to the Financial Aid Office and complete a FAFSA to be considered for this scholarship. (This scholarship is available as funds permit). Students must be enrolled full time (9 credit hours or more) during the regular fall or spring semester to be eligible for this scholarship.

PTS Ministry Honors Scholarship: This scholarship is awarded (July 1 through June 30) to individuals based on the recommendations of participating Church of God State Administrative Bishops. Candidates should be persons of ministerial integrity and leadership promise. Recipients are required to register for a minimum of 12 credit hours (main campus or online) during the student's first year of enrollment. The student must apply for other PTS scholarships for all the succeeding years. There are three award categories for this scholarship: African American Ministry Honors (8 scholarships per academic year); Latino Ministry Honors (8 scholarships per academic year); and Pastoral Ministry Honors (20 scholarships per academic year).

New Incoming First Year Scholarship: First year, first time students attending the Seminary may apply for a $2,500 scholarship before beginning their first year at the Seminary. Applicants must complete and submit an Application for Financial Aid to the Financial Aid Office and complete a FAFSA to be considered for this scholarship. (This scholarship is available as funds permit). Students must be enrolled full time (9 credit hours or more) during the regular fall or spring semester to be eligible for this scholarship.

Church of God Graduate Scholarship: Church of God members who have graduated the previous academic year from a Church of God college or university, with a minimum GPA of 2.5, may apply for this $2,000 scholarship during their first year at the Seminary. Applicants must complete an Application for Financial Aid to the Financial Aid Office and complete a FAFSA to be considered for this grant. Students must be enrolled full time (9 credit hours or more) during the regular fall or spring semester to be eligible for this scholarship. (This need-based scholarship is available as funds permit).

Endowed Scholarships: Endowed scholarship funds have been established at the Seminary by many contributors. The endowment amount available for scholarships varies according to the size of the endowment. Eligibility varies according to scholarship criteria. Applicants must complete and submit an Application for Financial Aid to the Financial Aid Office and complete a FAFSA to be considered for endowed scholarships. Students must be enrolled full time (9 credit hours or more) during the regular fall or spring semester to be eligible for this scholarship. (This is a need-based scholarship available as funds permit).

Presidential Scholarship: A student approaching the nonacademic year and who has shown outstanding academic and spiritual progress is selected by the Seminary President to receive the Presidential Scholarship. This scholarship covers up to $5,000 of tuition cost. Applicants wishing to be considered for this scholarship must be enrolled full-time (9 credit hours or more); must complete and submit an Application for Financial Aid to the Financial Aid Office; and complete a FAFSA. (This scholarship is available as funds permit.)

Care Ministry Scholarship Program: Ministers employed as full time staff at a church may apply for the Care Ministry Scholarship. If awarded this scholarship, the recipient will receive a need-based award and must be enrolled at least 8 credit hours per academic year (July 1 - June 30). Applicants must complete and submit to the Financial Aid Office an Application for Financial Aid and a Care Ministry Scholarship Form. See the Care Ministry Scholarship terms and conditions in Populi system under forms or obtain through the PTS Financial Aid Office. They must also complete a FAFSA to be considered for this scholarship. (This need-based scholarship is available as funds permit).

Larry and Helen Owens Chaplaincy Scholarship: Applicants must be enrolled as full-time students in programs of study for the ministry with plans for chaplaincy. Major consideration will be given to past and potential academic performance and to the financial need of applicants. Two scholarships of up to $2,000 will be granted. Applicants must complete and submit an Application for Financial Aid to the Financial Aid Office and complete a FAFSA to be considered for the scholarship. Students must be enrolled full time (9 credit hours or more) during the regular fall or spring semester to be eligible for this scholarship.

Master's Degree Program Tuition Assistance Scholarships

The following tuition assistance scholarships are available for the Pentecostal Theological Seminary resident or extension students. One scholarship per semester per student will be granted. Applicants must be in good financial standing with the Seminary and must submit an Application for Financial Aid and FAFSA to the Financial Aid Office by the April 15 deadline. These scholarships cannot be used in conjunction with any other PTS scholarship. All tuition scholarships are based on financial need and may be applied to resident, extension, and online programs.

Student Spouse: A spouse of a full-time student (9 or more credit hours per full-time semester) may apply for a 50% scholarship (up to 6 credit hours per semester). The scholarship will be applied to the spouse enrolled in the lesser number of classes.

College Seniors: College seniors in the final semester of their undergraduate degree may apply for a 100% tuition scholarship toward their first resident or extension course taken at the Seminary, and a 25% scholarship on each subsequent course (up to 9 credit hours) while concurrently enrolled. (Total credit hours enrolled at both institutions cannot exceed 16 credit hours.) This scholarship covers tuition only. The student is responsible for fees.

Pentecostal Theological Seminary Graduate Alumni: Seminary graduate alumni are eligible for one free audit course or 50% off one for-credit course per academic year in the resident program or at any distance learning site participating in the alumni scholarship program. Scholarships are applied toward tuition only. The student is responsible for fees.

State Overseers: Full-time Church of God State Administrative Bishops may apply for one free course per academic year. Scholarships are applied towards tuition only. The student is responsible for fees.

Mission America Fund: A Senior Pastor and/or spouse can receive sponsorship for Seminary tuition. The contributing church may receive World Missions sponsorship credit for monies designated to the senior pastor/spouse who is attending the Seminary. Churches sending funds to the Seminary Business Office should designate Mission America Project #8000023 "Pentecostal Training" and indicate the name of the senior pastor/spouse to be funded.

Master's Degree Program Institutional Grants and Loans

Black American and Hispanic Student Loan: This ethnic loan program is limited to $4,500 for tuition per academic year and may be awarded to up to six students. These funds are part of the Home Missions Loan Program and must be repaid with service to the Church of God in an approved ministry area (service payback) or paid back with interest as a loan (loan payback). (See Home Missions Loan program guidelines below). Applicants must be enrolled as a full-time student (9 credit hours or more); must complete and submit an Application for Financial Aid to the Financial Aid Office; and complete a FAFSA to be considered for this scholarship (available as funds permit).

Home Missions Loan: This Seminary sponsored tuition loan is limited to $4,200 per academic year for ministerial student candidates who are interested in and willing to serve as pastor, associate pastor, church planter or other approved positions in the following regions in the United States:

- Home mission states
- Urban mission
- Latino mission
- Black mission

An applicant for the Home Missions Loan must be a member of the Church of God who desires to prepare for full-time Christian ministry. The applicant must hold ministerial credentials with the Church of God, be in the process of securing such credentials, or commit to begin the process during that term. In the latter case, the recipient shall report to the Financial Aid Office the date on which the ministerial application is submitted.

This loan program is designed to allow the Seminary to partner with those students who feel called to minister in areas where the Church of God wants to strengthen ministry efforts. The Home Missions Loan program provides an exible remuneration policy. A recipient of this loan must be a full-time student, have a minimum GPA of 2.0, and must have completed 24 hours at the Pentecostal Theological Seminary to be eligible for this loan. Applicants may apply by submitting a Home Mission Loan application, letter of intent, and Financial Aid application to the Financial Aid Office by the priority deadline.

Service payback: The loan can be paid back in service. One year of service in an approved area pays back one year of financial aid. The student can pay the entire loan back in service if desired. In order to be eligible for the service payback option the student must have graduated from the Seminary and received ministerial credentials in the Church of God.

Loan payback: If a student fails to comply with the terms of the Home Mission loan criteria, the service payback option is cancelled and the loan shall be subject to an eight percent (8%) annual interest rate and shall be repaid in installments. The maximum length of time for repayment shall be five (5) years and the minimum monthly payment shall be $50. The first payment is due on the first day of the seventh (7th) month after graduation or termination of studies.

Work-Study Program

The Federal Work-Study program (FWS) is subsidized by federal funds and provides employment for US citizens and permanent residents to aid in furthering their education. The student must demonstrate financial need, as indicated by FAFSA/SAR findings, to be eligible for FWS. The amount awarded depends on financial need calculated and availability of federal funds granted to PTS. The participant works an average of 10 hours per week at the current established rate. (The PTS Business Office maintains the current rate.) Students receiving FWS funds are assigned jobs on the basis of the needs of the Seminary and the abilities and skills of the student applicant. The Seminary's Graduate Assistant/Federal Work-Study assignment process is as follows:

1. The student makes application for a graduate assistant position through the Financial Aid Office
2. The student completes the FAFSA and the Seminary's Application for Financial Aid by the priority deadline. (The Financial Aid Office will send the names of eligible candidates to the Office of Administrative Services.)
3. Upon reviewing the applications, Administrative Services in conjunction with the Office of the Vice President for Academics will make the assignments.

Vocational Rehabilitation Benefits

Students should contact their local office of Vocational Rehabilitation Department of Human Services in the state where they reside, to see if they qualify for any educational assistance. Once approved, please call us at: rsluder@ptseminary.edu or 423-478-7727 and we will be glad to assist in processing your paperwork.

Veteran's Benefits

The Seminary is approved for the training of veterans and other eligible persons under the terms of the veterans education benefits. Veterans may apply for benefits or learn more by going to the Office of Veterans Administration (www.gibill.va.gov). The Financial Aid Office will help qualified applicants file the proper forms to apply for these benefits. For more information, email rsluder@ptseminary.edu or call 423-478-7727.

Post 9/11 Bill

Veterans serving after September 11, 2001 may apply for the Post 9/11 bill. Students approved for these benefits are eligible for funding up to $21,084.89 based on VA approval and eligibility criteria and percentage of benefits as approved by the Veteran's Administration. Students should logon to www.gibill.va.gov to apply for Post 9/11 GI Bill approval or read more about other VA programs. Once approved, students should submit a copy of the Post 9/11 GI Bill certificate of eligibility to the Financial Aid Office along with an Application for Financial Aid. Application entry dates are based on the date the certificate of eligibility is submitted to the Financial Aid Office). For more information, logon to the VA website at www.gibill.va.gov or call 1-888-442-4551.

PRINCIPLES OF EXCELLENCE

Office of Financial Aid

There are many financial aid options available at the Pentecostal Theological Seminary to assist you with your educational future. PTS's Financial Assistance Information will provide you with information on the availability of, and your potential eligibility for Federal aid, PTS scholarships, and other sources of aid that may be available (Executive Order 13607 Section 2a & 2b.).

Prospective students who are service members, Veterans, or family members and who will receive Federal funds under the military and veteran's educational benefits programs will receive estimated financial aid offer information in a personalized and standardized form that will describe:

1. The cost of your educational program;
1. The amount of cost that may be covered by available PTS scholarships, Federal education benefits and financial aid based on the information we have available at the time information is issued.

This information is subject to changes as additional information is provided and as Federal regulations may apply (Executive Order 13607 Section 2a & 2b).

Office of Director of Enrollment Management

PTS does not participate in fraudulent or unduly aggressive recruiting techniques on or off military installations, misrepresentation or payment of incentive compensation. PTS meets state authorization requirements, consistent with the regulations issued by the Department of Education (34 C.F.R. 668.71-668.75, 668.14, and 600.9).

PTS complies with readmission requirements for service members set forth in the Higher Education Opportunity Act (HEOA) section 487 and its implementing regulations (34 CFR § 668.18). PTS will promptly readmit service members to the same program with the same academic status after an interruption in their program due to a call to active duty. The cumulative length of all absences for military service may not exceed five years.

Students who are service members who are called to active duty must provide PTS with written notification of (1) the military service and (2) the intent to return to school following the active duty service.

Students who are called to active duty must return to school under one of the following:

- Within three years after the completion of the period of service

- Within two years of the needed recovery period if hospitalized or convalescing due to an illness or injury incurred or aggravated during the performance of service

Students must provide documentation such as, but not limited to the following: DD214, duty orders indicating completion of service, a letter from commanding officer or other authority, certificate of completion from military training school, discharge certificate with character of service, payroll documents showing periods of service, or letter from National Disaster Medical System Team Leader/Administrative Officer verifying dates and time of NDMS training or Federal activation. Other documents may be considered on a case by case basis.

Service members readmitted to PTS under this procedure will be assessed tuition and fees at the rate of their last attendance or prior offer of admission for one (1) calendar year if they are pursuing the same degree. After the one calendar year, they are assessed the tuition and fee rates in effect at that time.

Office of Vice President of Academics

At the Seminary we also provide all students access to a dynamic individualized educational plan available on demand through our student portal. This personalized “Degree Progress Audit” details each individual student’s progress toward completion of his or her degree requirements based on year of enrollment. Information includes:

1. Program Details-including information about your enrollment, GPA, Satisfactory Academic Progress status, Credits earned, scheduled, and required;
2. Student Academic Progress-A degree audit demonstrating your progress towards completing your program requirements; and
3. Individual Course information and requirements.
- 4.

Evaluated Educational Plan

In addition, the Seminary will provide to service members, veterans, and their family members who have previous coursework from other accredited institutions and relevant military training and experiential learning an evaluated education plan that indicates:

1. How many, if any, transfer credits we intend to award and
2. How these transfer credits will be applied toward your educational program.

This evaluated educational plan will be provided within 60 days after your degree program selection and all official transcripts have been received.

Advising Point of Contact

Service members, veterans, and their family members seeking support services may acquire information from our qualified staff members. The Seminary provides these points of contact:

1. Academic Counseling-Office of Academics
2. Financial Aid Counseling-Financial Aid Advisor
3. VA and TA Benefit Counseling- Financial Aid Advisor
4. Student Support Service Counseling- Office of Student Services

Office of Vice- President for Institutional Effectiveness and Accreditation

The Pentecostal Theological Seminary obtains approval from our accrediting agencies in compliance with substantive change requirements by those agencies for courses or program offerings and only enrolls students in accordance with such approval as is appropriate under the substantive change requirements of the each accrediting agency (Executive Order 13607 Section 2d).

Business Office

As Pentecostal Theological Seminary follows the Principles of Excellence as outlined in Executive Order 13607 (EO 13607), any refunds to students who are service members, veterans, spouses and other family members of service members will follow the Seminary's Return of Title IV Refund Policy as outlined on page 49.

FEDERAL STUDENT LOANS

The Federal Direct Student Loan Program: Under this program, students (Masters and DMIN) may borrow funds from the Department of Education. The amount that a student may borrow cannot exceed the student's financial need. The maximum annual amount a student is eligible to borrow is $20,500 in unsubsidized loans (per Department of Education). Students must be registered at least half-time for federal loans (6 credit hours for fall and spring terms or 3 credit hours during summer J terms). The origination and guarantee fees for the loan must be paid by the student and normally will be deducted from the loan before it is disbursed. The current rate is a 6.21 fixed rate. Interest begins accruing at the time of disbursement. Repayment of the loan begins six (6) months after the student graduates, withdraws from school, or drops below half time enrollment.

To apply for any federal loan, students are required to submit a FAFSA (www.fafsa.ed.gov), Entrance Counseling (student loans), Master Promissory Note (MPN; www.studentloans.gov), and any other required documents for verification. Students may request more about steps to apply at finaid@ptseminary.edu.

The Direct Graduate Plus Loan Program: Under this program, students may borrow from the Department of Education, if approved, based on a their credit history. The maximum annual amount may not exceed the cost of attendance minus other estimated financial assistance. The origination fee for the loan must be paid by the student and will be deducted from the loan before the loan is disbursed to the school. Interest begins at the time of disbursement. Students must be enrolled, accepted, and taking 6 credit hours (half-time enrollment) or more to meet eligibility requirements. Repayment of the loan begins after the student graduates, withdraws or drops below half-time enrollment.

Private Student Loans: Students may request a private student loan with the lender of his or her choice. Students must meet loan eligibility requirements and be approved by the lender. Please see the Financial Aid Office for details.

STUDENT LOAN DEFERMENTS

Each semester, enrolled students may request that repayment of loans be postponed by submitting an In-School Loan Deferment Request to each lender. The Registrar's Office will verify on the form the student's current enrollment. Students may acquire a loan deferment request form from their loan service(s). Deferments are granted for students taking 6 hours or more per semester. The student is responsible for retrieving the completed deferment from the Registrar's Office and mailing or faxing it to his or her loan service(s).

EMERGENCY STUDENT LOANS

The Mary Nell Winters Revolving Loan Fund: This is a revolving loan fund, set up and endowed by Mr. and Mrs. Dan Winters of Winter Haven, Florida, to help students in times of emergencies. Loans are made for ninety (90) days to provide assistance in unforeseen emergencies and must have a cosigner. Loan application, processing, and disbursement are coordinated in the Financial Aid Office. A small application fee is charged for this loan. The student must be enrolled at Pentecostal Theological Seminary during the semester the student is requesting the loan.

The Jerry and Pat Dixon Emergency Loan/Grant Endowment: This is a revolving loan/grant fund designed to help students in times of emergencies. The student can receive a grant up to $100 each year, with a maximum lifetime amount of $400. Recipients are encouraged to honor the fund with a gift once they are financially able. Students can also receive up to $300 in loan funds. Applicants for the emergency loan/grant fund must demonstrate need, be morally fit, and be enrolled as full-time students. Students can apply for this loan/grant through the Financial Aid Office. A small application fee will be charged for this loan. The student must be enrolled at Pentecostal Theological Seminary during the semester the student is requesting the loan.

Academic Information

ACADEMIC CALENDAR

The Pentecostal Theological Seminary operates on a semester and J-term calendar. This means that students can take courses during the Fall and Spring semesters as well as in three J-terms (January, June, or July). The course credit is measured in credit hours.

VERTICAL SCHEDULING

Vertical scheduling (i.e., block-scheduling the three credit hours of a course consecutively on the same day) has increased access for many who could not otherwise attend Seminary (e.g., commuting students). Students are also able to take a full load of courses during the week on campus or online synchronously and asynchronously.

COURSE LOAD

The normal full-time course load for a year is twenty-seven semester hours: twelve hours for each of the Fall and Spring terms and three hours for January, June, or July. Nine hours is the minimum full-time load required for Immigration and the Veterans Administration funded students. Permission to take more than sixteen hours in one term must be granted by the Vice President for Academics. International students normally register for courses during all terms.

A student who works twenty or more hours per week needs special permission from the Vice President for Academics to take more than nine hours. Students entering the field of theology from another field of study, as well as those receiving instruction for the first time in an English-speaking classroom (TOEFL), are advised to consider taking a reduced load. Students who do not take a reduced load should be aware of the need to give more than ordinary time and diligence to study.

J-TERM COURSE LOAD

The normal J-Term course load is 3 hours. Students must have the express approval of their faculty advisor and the Vice President for Academics to enroll in more than 6 hours in any J-Term.

DUAL DEGREES

Students at PTS should not pursue "dual degrees" simultaneously. Instead, they are encouraged to focus on one degree and then by way of academic policies to transfer credits and/or waive courses for their second degree. In practice, some of the courses that the student takes may result in being applied to his or her first and second degree programs with adherence to the academic procedures in place to have credits transferred to the second degree.

TRANSFER OF CREDIT

Students may transfer up to two-thirds of the credit hours required for a degree. Up to one-half of the credit hours required for a concentration may be transferred. Only one-half of the credit hours from a degree completed at another institution may be transferred. All transfer courses must have received a grade of C or higher from an accredited institution. In order to receive transfer credit for seminary core or concentration courses, students will be required to provide course documents verifying parallel outcomes between transfer courses and seminary requirements. Transfer credit will not be given for coursework more than 10 years old. Exceptions to this policy may be granted in cases where documentation and demonstration of course equivalency can be established. All requests for transfer credit must be processed through the Office of the Vice President for Academics.

ADVANCED STANDING WITH CREDIT

In adherence with the stipulations set forth by the Association of Theological Schools, students can be granted advanced standing with credit for their undergraduate work. It is expected that the students will normally draw from multiple undergraduate courses to qualify for the advanced standing with credit for a graduate course at the Seminary. The students must build a portfolio of their work for undergraduate courses to be considered for Master's Level Credit. It should be noted that only the courses with grades of B- or better will be considered. The total number of hours for the degree will be reduced by the number of approved hours per ATS standards for selected first year courses provided students can demonstrate a level of knowledge, competencies, and/or skills appropriate to the respective course as it is taught at the Seminary. Students may be allowed/required to audit one or more of the courses as part of a portfolio demonstrating equivalency in knowledge and/or skills. Students may earn up to the following number of credits based on their undergraduate work:

MDIV	12 hours
MTS	8 hours
MACM	8 hours
MADCF	10 hours
MACMHC	12 hours
MAC	8 hours

Assessment of eligibility for advanced standing with credit will be made by a faculty member teaching in the curricular area of the course/s for which reduction is sought. Application for advanced standing with credit must be made to the Office of the Vice President for Academics by July 15 for the Fall semester and by October 15 for the Spring semester. Students are responsible for preparing the advanced standing portfolio for each course and for collecting all needed documents according to guidelines provided by the Academics Office. Students must pay a fee of $75 per credit hour for each portfolio submitted. This fee is non-refundable.

UNDERGRADUATE EQUIVALENCY POLICY

Admission to the Seminary normally requires a baccalaureate degree. In extenuating circumstances, subject to specific review of college transcripts by the Student Academics Office, approval for "undergraduate degree equivalency" status can be granted for admission purposes. Entering students with not less than 100 semester hours of college credit for undergraduate coursework and with a generally acceptable distribution of courses across the arts and sciences may possibly begin graduate studies and enter degree programs at the Seminary without restrictions. In no case shall students in an undergraduate degree program be allowed to suspend those studies in order to enroll in the Seminary. Students able to complete a college degree without hardship shall be encouraged to do so.

FACULTY ADVISOR

Each student is assigned a faculty advisor for assistance in planning a program of study. This advisor serves as the student's immediate counselor throughout his or her time at the Seminary. In order to ensure that each student stays within the boundaries of the degree program, the student should meet with his or her advisor each semester to complete and maintain an accurate progress sheet. The student should notify his or her advisor of any course changes made, including any courses resulting in an F. The student should also notify the advisor of any transferred courses.

A request to change an advisor assignment must be submitted by the student to the Student Academics Office. The request must also be approved by the previous advisor and new advisor. The form must be submitted to the Registrar's Office.

All students in their final year of studies must sign a graduating progress sheet, which, when also signed by the advisor and Vice President for Academics, becomes a contract for graduation and reception of the appropriate diploma. This progress sheet should be signed in the Fall semester prior to the following Spring graduation and in the Spring/Summer terms prior to the following December graduation. The form must also be filled out by May 1st for Summer/August graduation.

The Seminary believes that each advisor has responsibility not only for academic guidance, but for a measure of spiritual and personal guidance as well. The Vice President for Academics and Director of Counseling and Testing are also available for further consultation, after a student has met with his or her advisor.

REGISTRATION

All students must register courses for each term during the time designated for that purpose. Students who do not register during the designated time will be charged a Late Registration Fee.

Students wishing to enroll after registration closes must have permission from the Vice President for Academics.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

If a current student who has earned satisfactory academic progress chooses not to enroll in the next term, the student should notify the Registrar's Office of this intent and of his or her expected term of returning. Failure to enroll after 13 months or more will require the student to apply for readmission. Special students may not resume degree-seeking status when they return after a leave of absence.

CLASS ATTENDANCE

Regular attendance of all classes is required. Absences of more than one hour of class time for each credit hour must be specifically excused by the instructor. Unexcused absences in excess of two hours of class time for each credit hour will normally require that the student be withdrawn from the class or have a grade of "F" for the course. In the case of those receiving VA or federal loans, the Veterans Administration or loan-granting agency will be promptly notified of any change in status.

GRADING SYSTEM

The following factors are considered in assessing work and assigning grades:

1. Information Gained – demonstration of usable knowledge of pertinent data, accurately assembled and organized (to include terms, ideas, theories, dates, names, events, people, places, institutions, processes, documents, etc.).
2. Ability to use Methodology – demonstration of ability to use advantageously the tools and resources of that particular discipline in a way that is fruitful for that course.
3. Ability to Communicate – demonstration of ability to organize and communicate material pertinent to that subject area, including written and, where applicable, verbal skills.
4. Evidence of Originality – demonstration of fresh and new insights into the subject matter and/or its methodology and application.

The Pentecostal Theological Seminary uses letter grades, which are to be interpreted by the following guidelines:

A = EXCELLENT – represents a high level of information gained, ability to use methodology, ability to communicate, and evidence of originality.

B = ABOVE AVERAGE – represents an above-average grasp of the information and methodology, a commensurate ability to communicate, an industrious attitude, and thoroughness.

C = AVERAGE – represents acceptable work, but tends to be mechanical and lacking in originality and depth. It may reflect a lack of concern to excel or ability to demonstrate insight into material studied.

D = BELOW AVERAGE – represents unsatisfactory achievement in all areas, but is passing.

F = UNACCEPTABLE – represents work that fails to meet the requirements for a seminary course or failure of the student to file for an incomplete. If the course is repeated and successfully passed, the new grade, rather than the F, will be used in calculating the student's GPA and the first course will be expunged from the transcript. The course must be repeated if it is over a year old and the grade received was an F.

I = INCOMPLETE – An Incomplete is not lightly given. It is designed for the rare occasion when the student has been seriously ill or suffered some other hardship beyond his or her control. (Procrastination is not an acceptable reason). To receive an Incomplete (I), the student must submit an Incomplete application for approval by the course instructor, his or her academic advisor, and the Vice President for Academics. The designated application fee must also be paid. (The Incomplete applications is available on the Seminary's website at the PTS forms site in Populi). The request must be submitted no later than the last day of exams. (DMIN students must submit requests for an Incomplete no later than March 1, the deadline for completion of all DMIN coursework). Incompletes are not available for online courses. If the I is not removed within one year from the date of enrollment in the course, it automatically becomes an F, and the student will be required to repeat the course (scholarships will not cover a repeated course). Note: Incompletes may jeopardize academic progress as well as financial aid eligibility.

W = WITHDRAWAL – Withdrawal from a class is permitted any time before the last day of class. The student, if on scholarship, becomes financially responsible for the course. Failure to officially withdraw from a course will result in the student being failed for the course and a grade of F recorded on the his or her transcript. NOTE: Although Withdrawals do not affect the student's GPA, they may jeopardize academic progress as well as financial aid eligibility.

AU = AUDIT – represents enrollment and participation in a course with no credit.

P = PASS – represents enrollment and participation in a course with no credit.

Note: No grade may be changed without written approval of the instructor and the Vice President for Academics. A grade change submitted for a student who has not previously applied for an Incomplete or Extension of Time will only be considered in exceptional cases. In such cases, student shall not be entitled to a grade higher than B. The student shall pay a $100 fee for the grade change. A written appeal can be made to the Academics Office by the faculty member and the student in question for circumstances deemed to warrant special consideration in handling such exceptional grade change requests.

VALUES FOR LETTER GRADES

A = 4.0

A- = 3.7

B+ = 3.3

B = 3.0

B- = 2.7

C+ = 2.3

C = 2.0

C- = 1.7

D+ = 1.3

D = 1.0

F = 0 and affects the GPA. AU, I, and W do not affect the GPA, however they do affect Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP).

PRIVACY AND CONFIDENTIALITY OF STUDENT RECORDS

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974 affords students certain rights with respect to their education records. They are:

1. The right to inspect and review their personal education records within 45 days of the day the Seminary receives a request for access. Students should submit to the Registrar a written request that identifies the record(s) they wish to inspect. The Registrar will make arrangements for access and notify the student of the time and place the records may be inspected.
2. The right to request the amendment of their personal education records that the student believes are inaccurate or misleading. Students may ask the Seminary to amend the record that they believe is inaccurate or misleading. They should write to the Registrar clearly identifying the part of the record they want changed and specify why it is inaccurate or misleading. If the Seminary decides not to amend the record as requested by the student, the Seminary will notify the student of the decision and advise the student of his or her right to a hearing regarding the request for amendment. Additional information regarding the hearing procedures will be provided to the student when notified of the right to a hearing.
3. The right to consent to disclosures of personally identifiable information contained in their personal education records, except to the extent that FERPA authorizes without consent. One exception that permits disclosure without consent is disclosure to school officials with legitimate interests. A school official is a person employed by the Seminary in an administrative, supervisory, academic, research, or support staff position; a person or company with whom the Seminary has contracted (such as an attorney, auditor, or collection agent); a person serving on the Board of Trustees; or a student serving on an official committee, such as Ministerial Development Committee, or assisting another school official in performing his or her tasks. A school official has a legitimate educational interest if the official needs to review an education record in order to fulfill his or her professional responsibility.

4. The right to file a complaint with the US Department of Education concerning alleged failures by the Seminary to comply with the requirements of FERPA.
5. The Pentecostal Theological Seminary has designated the following categories of information as directory information: name, mailing address, email address, telephone listing, degree program and concentration of study, and dates of attendance. If the student does not wish such information to be released without consent, the student must complete a REQUEST TO PREVENT DISCLOSURE OF DIRECTORY INFORMATION form with the Registrar. If this form is not filed with the Registrar's Office, it will be assumed that the directory information may be disclosed.
6. Students may agree to give access to academic information to other individuals/third-parties by submitting a completed and signed Release of Information Request Form.

POLICY ON INFORMATION AND RECORDS

The Seminary maintains academic records in many media forms for each enrolled student. These records are the property of the Pentecostal Theological Seminary. After graduation, digital copies of the graduate's admission documents (i.e., application, autobiography, transcripts of prior academic records) and the transcript from the Pentecostal Theological Seminary are designated as a permanent record. Portfolio materials collected to demonstrate the student's achievement of program outcomes may be retained in the Seminary's Learning Management System. Release of information to third parties shall be made only at the written request of the student or by subpoena, except in cases of grave injustices and crimes.

PROGRAM DURATION

Using the average number of student hours as a guide, it is projected that the MDIV degree should be completed in 6 years or less. The MA and MTS degrees should be completed in 5 years or less. This plan takes into consideration the trend toward an increasing number of part-time students. All course credits applied toward degree requirements should be earned within ten (10) years of the awarding of the degree.

SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROGRESS

Student must earn Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) to maintain enrollment at Pentecostal Theological Seminary. SAP is earned when the student maintains a cumulative GPA of 2.0 and successfully completes 75% of attempted credit hours. Failed grades, ungraded courses, extensions, incompletes and withdrawals are included when calculating this percentage.

It is advisable that any and all failed courses be repeated as soon as possible. Once a failed course is successfully repeated, the failing grade (F) will be removed and replaced with an R (repeated).

ACADEMIC WARNING AND SUSPENSION

Transcripts are reviewed by the Academics Office at the conclusion of each Fall term, each Spring term, and at the conclusion of the July J-Term. Those students who do not demonstrate sufficient academic progress will automatically be placed on Academic Warning during the next term of enrollment. If sufficient academic progress is achieved by the student at the end of the warning period, academic warning status will be removed. If Satisfactory Academic Progress is not achieved by the end of the warning period, the student may be placed on Academic Suspension.

When placed on academic warning, a student must conference with the Academics Office to formulate an Academic Plan the student will follow to correct the issues that may have caused Unsatisfactory Academic Progress. The action plan may include an adjustment to the student's class schedule in order to improve academic performance. If a student does not improve his or her academic performance during the warning period, he or she will be required to withdraw from the Seminary (Academic Suspension) for at least one term to work toward the resolution of the problems involved.

When a student returns to the Seminary after academic suspension, the student returns on academic warning as he or she corrects any academic transcript issues.

ACADEMIC APPEAL

Students may appeal a determination of lack of sufficient academic progress to the Office of the Vice President for Academics. If extenuating circumstances (i.e., illness, financial hardship, personal or family difficulties) are substantiated in writing by the student to the Vice President for Academics and judged to be of sufficient nature as to impair student academic progress, consideration for reinstatement will be given and a plan proposed to allow the student to complete his or her degree. The proposed plan must be accepted by the student, the student's advisor, the Financial Aid Committee (if student is eligible for aid), the Registrar, and the Office of Academics.

The student may apply for readmission by submitting a letter to the Vice President for Academics stating: (1) the reason for requesting readmission; (2) any action taken to correct the problem; and (3) the applicant's present academic/vocational expectations. Upon recommendation from the Vice President for Academics, this letter and the applicant's academic file will be reviewed by the Admissions Committee for consideration of readmission.

DIRECTED/INDEPENDENT STUDY

Directed/Independent Study is available on a limited basis (9 hours for all MA programs and 12 hours for the MDIV program) to the student who is already enrolled in a regular period of the school year (either Fall, Spring or J-term) and in the process of pursuing a degree. Directed Studies may be specialized research in an area not ordinarily covered by a course. Independent Studies are courses listed in the catalog. As a general rule, core courses are not offered by Directed/Independent Study. Permission to take a course by Directed/Independent Study must be requested and justified. In both cases, the student must obtain consent from the course instructor, his or her academic advisor, and Student Academics. Requests to take Directed/Independent Study must be made before the last day of drop/add for the given semester or J-term. The GPA required for specialized research is 3.0 and for a listed course 2.0. The course, in either case, counts within the regular load unless permission is granted by the Vice President for Academics to take an overload. Directed/Independent Study is residential work, not correspondence study, and requires four consultations with the instructor during the J-term or semester. Directed/Independent Study courses are contracted per semester or J-term and should be completed within that time frame. The student must pay for all courses in advance. The Directed/Independent Study form is available online through the PTS Forms Site.

If the student is unable to complete a Directed/Independent Study, he or she may apply for an Incomplete grade or the student may withdraw from the Directed/Independent Study up until the last day of final exams for the current semester or the last day assignments are due for a current J-term.

TRANSCRIPTS

PTS Academic Transcripts are available in either hard copy, printed on secure document paper and sealed in an envelope, or digitally in PDF. The person requesting his or her transcript should check with the institution receiving the document to verify their preference in format.

Requests for academic transcripts are submitted to the Office of Academic Records either through the PTS website (www.ptseminary.edu) and selecting the Transcript Request option located under the Alumni heading or through the student's access to the school's database in Populi.

Incomplete grades (I) will be changed to a failing grade (F) on all official transcripts. No transcripts will be issued to a student (current or former) if that person has an unpaid balance with the Seminary's Business Office.

GRADUATION

The Seminary has three graduation dates, August, December and May. Students anticipating graduation must submit an Application for Graduation to the Office of Academics December 8 for Spring graduation, September 15 for Fall graduation, and May 1 for Summer graduation. A completed degree program progress sheet, signed by the student and his or her advisor, must accompany the graduation application. No late applications will be accepted.

The graduation fee is payable at the time of application. The fee is not prorated and non-participation does not exempt a graduate from any part of the fee. Late applicants will be assessed a late fee and there is no guarantee of participation in the graduation ceremony. A graduate who has already completed one degree at Pentecostal Theological Seminary and is now completing another degree is required to apply for graduation and pay the graduation fee. Graduation applications are available online through the PTS Forms Site.

Graduates will not receive diplomas or release of transcripts until all grades are submitted to the Registrar's Office and all financial accounts are cleared with the Seminary and Squires Library. If clearance occurs after graduation, graduates will be required to make necessary arrangements for receiving their diploma through the Office of the Vice President for Academics. There will be an extra charge if the diploma is mailed.

Diploma Replacement

In case of loss, theft or destruction of an original diploma from this institution, replacement diplomas can be requested from the Office of the Vice President for Academics. A diploma replacement fee is required at the time the replacement request is made. Request may take up to eight weeks to process.

Damaged diplomas must be returned in order to process a replacement request. A graduate cannot hold two Pentecostal Theological Seminary diplomas for the same degree program.

ONLINE LEARNING

The Pentecostal Theological Seminary offers a comprehensive program of online courses. The seminary utilizes two course delivery methods: online (asynchronous) courses and SYNC (synchronous) courses. Online courses take place fully at Populi course sites. In addition to utilizing Populi, SYNC (synchronous) courses are offered live at a designated time via video conferencing software.

With faculty advisor approval, students enrolled in the Master of Divinity may complete 2/3 of the required credit hours through online education. The Master of Divinity requires the equivalent of a minimum of one year of residential coursework.

GUIDELINES FOR ONLINE COURSES

Instructional Model

1. Online courses generally follow the PTS Academic calendar in the same manner as on-campus courses (with the exception of summer J-term sessions which are 8 weeks in length).
2. Weekly, active, and constructive engagement, including substantive responses to others in the course, is required. Weekly attendance is determined by student participation, primarily through the online discussion forums.

3. Online courses are not work at your own pace (directed or independent study).
4. Online courses are collaborative in nature. Students are required to contribute to the ongoing dynamic of the course every week to aid in the development of vibrant learning communities in which student formation is a communal reality.
5. Participation Guidelines: These guidelines are general in nature and apply to all online courses taught at Pentecostal Theological Seminary. Policies related to student participation, as well as the specific policies of each course, shall be posted on each course syllabus.
 - Students must log in to their online courses several times per week to access class content, assignments, and updates from instructors, as well as to fully engage in the ongoing class discussion.
 - Weekly attendance is determined by active/timely participation, primarily in course discussion forums.
 - It is the student's responsibility to maintain internet access. As course sites are always available throughout the semester, viable excuses are limited for late participation/submission of assignments. The instructor(s) determines the penalties for late submission of coursework as detailed in the course syllabus.
 - All participants are required to use the assigned @ptseminary.edu email address for Seminary correspondence. Course interaction should take place exclusively within course sites (Populi).
 - Professors should respond to student inquiries promptly, (normally within 24 hours, but no later than 48 hours of receiving the inquiry) during regular business hours: Monday-Friday, 8AM-5PM (Eastern). Professors are not expected to “teach” online courses during weekends, holidays and scheduled Seminary breaks.
 - All assignments must be submitted online at the Populi course site.

Attendance

Attendance guidelines for online courses are as follows:

1. Attendance is measured by participation in online discussion forums. Students who post after the due date for initial comments in each discussion form will be marked tardy for the class week.
2. Regular attendance and participation are critical to the effectiveness of online courses as a communal activity. Students who are marked absent for two or more meetings in an online course will have their grade reduced by one letter grade. More than three absences will result in the students being dropped from the course or receiving a failing grade.
3. All courses follow the Seminary calendar so that students attend for an entire semester (12 weeks of coursework; J-term online courses meet for 8 weeks.)

GUIDELINES FOR SYNC (synchronous) COURSES

Instructional Model

1. SYNC courses follow the PTS academic calendar in the same manner as on-campus courses.
2. SYNC courses must be attended each week at the designated day and time (lectures are not recorded).
3. SYNC courses are not work at your own pace (directed or independent study).
4. SYNC courses are collaborative in nature. Every student is expected to participate and contribute to the ongoing dynamic of the course every week.
- 5.

Participation Guidelines

Policies related to student participation, as well as the specific policies of each course, shall be posted in each course syllabus.

Attendance

Full attendance for online students in a synchronous course is measured by participation in the course, i.e. being seen and heard by the instructor and fellow students. Registering for a SYNC class demonstrates an understanding that the student is required to be actively available for the entire duration of each class session. Absences of more than one hour of class time for each credit hour must be specifically excused by the instructor. Unexcused absences in excess of two hours of class time for each credit hour will normally require that the student be withdrawn from the class or receive a failing grade (F) for the course.

SKILLS AND COMPETENCIES

To navigate online courses, basic computer skills are necessary. The following list identifies a minimum set of skills necessary for an effective online course experience.

Required Computer Skills:

1. Understanding of basic computer terminology and how the terms are applied.
2. Effective use of a word processor, in particular Microsoft Word, and its basic operational functions.
3. Ability to use the copy, cut, and paste commands.
4. Ability to save document files to your hard drive or other data storage media/devices including the cloud.
5. File sorting, creating new files, directory trees, etc. as necessary for effective management of course and student records.
6. All courses may not require use of spreadsheets, but ability to navigate in this environment is certainly a plus.

7. Ability to change basic computer settings (e.g., display settings, firewall settings, etc.).
8. Ability to troubleshoot basic problems.

Required Internet Skills:

1. Search for, find and view web sites by use of a browser.
2. Maintain general knowledge and use of e-mail including receiving, sending, opening and viewing messages and email attachments.
3. Send e-mail with an attachment.
4. Ability to upload and download files.
5. Participate in online discussion forums.
6. Download and install programs or documents from the web.
7. Troubleshoot basic navigation and Internet access problems.
8. Successfully navigate the Populi site.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

Material presented as part of an online course may not be published, distributed, or reprinted in any manner without written permission of the instructor or other resource persons designated by Pentecostal Theological Seminary. Materials specific to the course professor, in particular lecture notes (written, audio and video), remain the intellectual property of the author.

Incomplete Grades

Due to the design, delivery method and availability of online courses, a student may not apply for Incomplete Grades (grade of I) to complete coursework. Students enrolled in online courses must complete all course work according to the published online course schedule (normally the same as the Seminary Class Schedule) and receive a grade issued by the professor of record. If necessary, students may withdraw from online courses by following the adopted Seminary withdrawal process.

Academic Progress and Financial Aid

SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROGRESS POLICY FOR MASTER'S DEGREES

Financial Aid recipients must demonstrate through their scholastic records that they are making satisfactory academic progress toward completion of their program(s) of study in order to maintain eligibility for any form of Federal or Seminary financial assistance. Academic progress for financial aid is measured at the end of the Fall, Spring and Summer terms utilizing the following qualitative and quantitative standards.

Student must earn Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) to maintain enrollment at Pentecostal Theological Seminary. SAP is earned when the students maintains a cumulative GPA of 2.0 and successfully completes 75% of attempted credit hours. Failed grades, ungraded courses, extensions, incompletes and withdrawals are included when calculating this percentage.

It is advisable that any and all failed courses be repeated as soon as possible. Once a failed course is successfully repeated, the failing grade (F) will be removed and replaced with an R (repeated).

ACADEMIC WARNING AND SUSPENSION

Transcripts are reviewed by the Registrar's Office at the conclusion of each Fall term, each Spring term, and at the conclusion of the July J-Term. Those students who do not demonstrate sufficient academic progress will automatically be placed on Academic Warning during the next term of enrollment. If sufficient academic progress is achieved by the student at the end of the probation period, academic warning status will be removed. If SAP is not achieved by the end of the probation period, the student may be placed on Academic Suspension.

A student on academic warning will conference with the Academics Office to formulate an academic plan the student will follow to correct the probation issues. The action plan may include an adjustment to the student's class schedule in order to improve academic performance. If a student does not improve his or her academic standing during the probation period, he or she will be required to withdraw from the Seminary (Academic Suspension) for at least one term to work toward the resolution of the problems involved.

When a student returns to the Seminary after academic suspension, the student returns on academic probation as he or she corrects any academic transcript issues.

ACADEMIC APPEAL

Students may appeal a determination of lack of sufficient academic progress to the Office of the Vice President for Academics. If extenuating circumstances (i.e., illness, financial hardship, personal or family difficulties) are substantiated in writing by the student to the Vice President of Academics and judged to be of sufficient nature as to impair student academic progress, consideration for reinstatement will be given and a plan proposed to allow the student to complete his or her degree. The proposed plan must be accepted by the student, the student's advisor, the Financial Aid Committee (if student is eligible for aid), the Registrar, and the Vice President for Academics.

The student may apply for readmission by submitting a letter to the Vice President for Academics stating: (1) the reason for requesting readmission; (2) any action taken to correct the problem; and (3) the applicant's present academic/vocational expectations. Upon recommendation from the Vice President for Academics, this letter and the applicant's academic file will be reviewed by the Admissions Committee for consideration of readmission.

Qualitative Standards for Financial Aid Eligibility

This standard measures a student's quality of performance in terms of courses successfully completed and must maintain a cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 2.0 at the Pentecostal Theological Seminary.

Quantitative Standards for Financial Aid Eligibility

This standard has two components: maximum time frame and course completion rate. The maximum time frame in which a student must complete a program of study cannot exceed 150 percent of the published program length, measured in credit hours attempted. Example: A student pursuing a program that contains 89 hours would be allowed to attempt a maximum of 133 hours [89×150 percent (1.5) = 133]. The number of hours attempted includes any transfer hours accepted from other institutions that are applied to the student's program of study.

In conjunction with the maximum program length, students must successfully complete (measured as credit hours earned) at least 75 percent of all coursework attempted as they progress through their program of study. (Attempted hours include failed grades, ungraded courses, extensions, incompletes and withdrawals.) This is a cumulative process, illustrated as follows: A student has maintained satisfactory academic progress for the first two semesters of enrollment. However, at the end of the third semester the student's academic transcript indicates 45 hours attempted and 27 hours earned. The course completion rate is 60 percent (27 divided by 45). The student does not meet the required 75 percent standard and thus will be placed on Financial Aid Warning for the following semester. Note: all enrolled courses (including incompletes, extensions and withdrawals) are included as attempted hours when calculating percentage of earned hours towards course completion rate.

FINANCIAL AID ACADEMIC PROGRESS SUMMARY

Full-time Students

1. The student must have a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.0.
2. The student must have completed at least 75% of cumulative attempted hours. (Cumulative attempted hours include failed grades, ungraded courses, extensions, incompletes and withdrawals.)
3. The student must be attempting at least 9 hours in a regular semester or 6 hours in the Summer session.

Part-time Students

1. The student must have a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.0.
2. The student must have completed at least 75% of cumulative attempted hours. (Cumulative attempted hours include failed grades, ungraded courses, extensions, incompletes and withdrawals.)
3. The student must be attempting at least 6 hours in a regular semester or 3 hours in the Summer session.

FINANCIAL AID WARNING

A student who does not meet satisfactory academic progress standards is placed on Financial Aid Warning for one semester, during which time the student is eligible to receive financial aid funds. If the student meets the standards at the end of the warning semester, the student is removed from Financial Aid Warning status and maintains financial aid eligibility. If the student does not meet the standards at the end of the warning period, the student is placed on Financial Aid Ineligibility/Financial Aid Suspension.

FINANCIAL AID INELIGIBILITY

A student on Financial Aid Ineligibility Status is not eligible for any form of Federal or Seminary financial assistance. The student remains ineligible until satisfactory academic progress standards in Pentecostal Theological Seminary courses are met, or he or she may appeal for financial aid reinstatement. Some outside alternative loans are available for students working to regain academic progress.

FINANCIAL AID APPEAL PROCESS

Students placed on Financial Aid Ineligibility status can appeal to the Financial Aid Committee for financial aid reinstatement. The appeal must be submitted in writing to the Financial Aid Office and be accompanied by appropriate supporting documentation.

Acceptable reasons for appeal are: (1) serious illness or accident on the part of the student; (2) death, accident or serious illness in the immediate family; (3) financial difficulties forcing incomplete and premature withdrawal; (4) other extenuating circumstances directly affecting academic performance.

If financial aid is reinstated, the student is placed on Financial Aid Probation for one semester. After the Financial Aid probationary term, the student must be making Satisfactory Academic Progress or must be successfully following an academic plan. The student must meet with the Vice President for Academics to request an academic plan. Failure to meet the academic plan or academic progress standards will result again in the student being placed on Financial Aid Ineligibility. The student remains ineligible for financial aid until satisfactory academic progress standards in Pentecostal Theological Seminary courses are met or a successful financial aid appeal is approved. If the appeal is not approved, the student has no additional recourse for Pentecostal Theological Seminary financial aid until he or she regains academic progress. Students may be eligible to enroll in courses without financial aid assistance (Federal, Seminary or state aid) as long as they are not on Academic Suspension or if they have approval from the Office of the Vice President for Academics.

TRANSFER CREDITS and REPEATED COURSES

Transfers of credits from another school are measured in the quantitative review/completion rate calculations, but are not included in the (GPA) qualitative standard review for academic progress.

Retaking Failed Coursework: Students may retake a failed course again while receiving federal aid/loans until the course has been passed by the student.

Retaken Passed Coursework: Students may retake (one time only) any previously passed course while receiving Title IV federal loans. After repeating the course a second time and receiving a passing grade, the student is not allowed to retake the course again for federal loans. Students can retake the course but the retaken course cannot be counted towards the student's enrollment status (full time/part time) for federal aid eligibility, since a passing grade was received.

RETURN OF TITLE IV REFUND POLICY

The return of unearned Title IV aid applies to any student who meets the following criteria:

1. The student completely withdraws (officially or unofficially) before 60% of the payment period.
2. The student received Federal Title IV or state aid (Federal Stafford Loan, Federal Graduate PLUS Loan, but not Federal Work-Study).

If a student withdraws before the 60 percent point of the semester during the period of enrollment, calculated using calendar days, a portion of the total Title IV funds awarded a student, the Seminary is required to calculate the amount of aid earned. Any unearned aid must be returned according to the provisions of the Higher Education Amendments of 1998. The withdrawal date is determined by the Registrar's Office. If a student does not officially notify the institution of his or her withdrawal, 50 percent of the payment period may be used (or the school may choose to use a documented attendance date that is past the 50 percent point). The calculation of return of these funds may result in the student owing a balance to the seminary and/or the Federal Government.

If the amount disbursed to the student is greater than the amount the student earned, unearned funds must be returned. The student will be responsible for any balance due on the account after Title IV funds have been returned. The student's responsibility includes earned Title IV aid due to the lender and any tuition and fees due to the institution. If the student's portion of unearned Title IV aid is a loan, the terms and conditions of the loan take care of the repayment.

The student must return his or her portion of unearned Title IV aid to the institution within 45 days or they will be referred to the US Department of Education for collection. The student will remain ineligible to receive future Title IV aid until this obligation is paid in full.

Students should be aware that failure to attend all classes registered for in a term or unofficially withdrawing from school could result in their having to repay financial aid funds, thereby, making them ineligible to receive other Title IV assistance until this obligation is paid in full. Unresolved overpayments are reported to the Department of Education. (To view the Title IV policy in its entirety, students have access in Populi under "Forms" or they may request a copy from the Financial Aid Office at finaid@ptseminary.edu).

Student Handbook

The life of the Seminary community is fed by four streams: the classes, the Community of Faith groups, chapel worship, and the annual Ministers Week. All faculty and students are committed to a full participation in these ministries because the vision of theological education in forming our life together focuses on spiritual formation for a lifetime of ministry and learning rather than mere information or assimilation of facts.

CLASSES

The professors of the Pentecostal Theological Seminary are gifted by the Holy Spirit for the ministry of teaching. Classes are therefore carried on in an atmosphere of prayer and worship which is in no way antithetical to critical inquiry, careful research, and vigorous debate. Indeed, prayer is essential for these pursuits.

CHAPEL

The chapel worship services contribute to deepening and enriching the devotional life of the Seminary community. These services, held on Tuesday and Thursday of each week at 11:00 am, also provide an opportunity for student participation in the leading of corporate worship. Since chapel services are so integral to the spiritual and intellectual life of the Seminary, regular attendance is required of all degree-seeking students. Any exception to this policy must be cleared through the Student Services Office.

MINISTERS' WEEK

Ministers' Week is held each spring term for the Seminary community to join with representatives of leadership, various general departments and other educational institutions of the Church. Ministers' Week events consider vital aspects of contemporary ministry from an interdisciplinary perspective, using various educational methods to illustrate the integration of faith and practice which is the hallmark of the Seminary.

DEVOTIONAL AND SPIRITUAL LIFE

The Pentecostal Theological Seminary is an institution dedicated to the education and training of prospective ministers; consequently, the spiritual and ethical standard of life expected of students is that which is expected of the ministry in general.

Communion and the Washing of the Saints' Feet are celebrated by the entire community. This special service is an occasion for drawing closer to God and to each other. Students of the Seminary are further encouraged to develop their own personal Bible study and daily devotions. Within the Cleveland community, some of the finest Church of God congregations offer students and their families opportunities to participate in worship and ministry. The Seminary strongly encourages each student to maintain close ties with a local church while enrolled at the Seminary.

ETHICAL COMMITMENT

Students should conduct themselves in an exemplary manner both on and off campus. Loyalty to one's membership and ministerial vows is expected. Personal conduct in relation to employment, social life, entertainment and recreation must reflect mature spiritual judgment and responsibility. Seminary students commit to abide by the Church of God Practical Commitments. This includes among other things, prohibition of the use of tobacco, alcoholic beverages, abuse or illegal use of drugs, and unscriptural sexual conduct (I Cor. 6:9-20, Rom. 1:16-32, Gal. 5:13-26). Intellectual honesty is an obligation of the Christian commitment; therefore, the Seminary requires complete integrity in its students in such matters as in the use of materials for research, in the submission of academic assignments, and in the taking of examinations. To this end, the following Student Intellectual Property policy was developed.

STUDENT INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY POLICY

Student intellectual property rights relate to faculty-produced course material and student-generated intellectual work. The Seminary recognizes the right of students dually enrolled in a course to take notes for personal study. Students do not have the right to take notes or disseminate them for commercial purposes without the written approval of the course instructor. Students shall not distribute or otherwise make notes taken in courses accessible on the Internet in any case unless approved by the instructor.

Students may not record electronically (audio or visual) faculty lectures except for personal study and then only with prior approval of the instructor. At the beginning of each course, faculty members shall notify students what lecture(s), if any, students may record. Student recordings of lectures shall not be distributed to others without prior written permission of the instructor. In the event of a perceived violation, and after conferencing with the offending student, faculty may file a grievance with the Vice President for Academics. The matter shall be handled according to the grievance policies as stated in the Faculty Handbook and Student Handbook. Student intellectual property is also protected. Student produced ideational content in projects and papers may not be used by faculty, staff, or others in publications, presentations, or for commercial purposes without written approval of the student in question. In the event of a perceived violation, and after conferencing with the offending faculty or staff person, students may file a grievance with the Vice President for Academics. When a grievance cannot be resolved in consultation with the Vice President for Academics, the matter shall be handled according to the grievance policies as stated in the Faculty Handbook and Student Handbook.

STUDENT ID

ID cards are available to enrolled students to permit the use of library materials. Cards for identification and library purposes are provided at Registration by Student Services. It is necessary for the student to present his or her ID card each time a book is checked out. The owner of the card is responsible for all materials checked out on that card.

DRESS CODE

In keeping with the practical commitments of the Church of God, students should aspire at all times to Christian modesty. Inappropriate dress for classes, chapel, and official school functions includes the following: shorts, tank tops, halter tops, exercise clothing. Appropriate recreational clothing may be worn for outdoor events, such as picnics, sports, etc. Caps and men's hats should not be worn indoors.

HOUSING

The Pentecostal Theological Seminary owns and operates Hamilton Court, a housing complex used for both national and international students. This building consists of eighteen apartments plus lobby, laundry, and maintenance storage space. Also, the Seminary owns several houses located on the main campus. Contact the Student Services Office for available housing opportunities.

PARKING

Adequate parking space is provided for all students and visitors. The responsibility for locating local parking space rests with the operator of the motor vehicle. Lack of space will not be considered a valid reason for violating parking regulations. The seminary and the Church of God shall have no responsibility for the loss or damage to any vehicle or its contents while operated or parked on the campus.

AUTOMOBILE INSURANCE

The Seminary encourages all students must have auto insurance before operating any motor vehicle as set forth by the State of Tennessee. The Seminary requires that all international students show PROOF OF AUTO INSURANCE every semester at registration. If a student fails to comply with the insurance requirement, his or her I-20 form will be cancelled and the change of status will be reported to immigration. The minimum requirement of auto insurance for all students should be:

- Liability for property damage and bodily injuries
- Medical payments
- Uninsured motorists

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY

Rights and responsibilities go hand in hand. On becoming a member of the seminary community a student assumes certain specific responsibilities. The following specific responsibilities are not meant to be exhaustive but representative:

It is the responsibility of each student to keep the Registrar's Office informed of his or her current residence, mailing address and telephone number. A student has the responsibility of understanding that his or her conduct and actions will be measured as a member of the seminary community and that he or she is responsible for the consequences of one's behavior. As such, illegal drugs, smoking, alcoholic beverages, and pornography are not permitted either in the buildings or anywhere on the Theological Seminary campus. Each student has the responsibility of upholding the high standards of the seminary--of giving allegiance to Jesus Christ as Lord in all matters and obeying those whom God has placed in positions of responsibility over them (Hebrews 13:17). Students should be examples of love, holiness and service in the Christian community and in the world. The entire community is responsible to see that these principles are upheld and observed.

The Seminary reserves the right to dismiss from the seminary any student whose conduct is found to be unsatisfactory after proper hearing and due process according to procedures described below:

1. Immoral conduct, including cheating and/or plagiarizing of other student papers.
2. Flagrant violation of seminary rules.
3. Subversion to the purposes of the seminary.
4. Insubordination to the authority of the seminary.
5. Falsification of information on any official form
6. Failure to meet academic standards.

Graduate students must assume full responsibility for knowledge of rules and regulations of the Seminary and requirements for the chosen degree program. Any exceptions to the policies stated in this catalog must be approved by the Vice President for Academics.

The Pentecostal Theological Seminary is a community of faith and discipleship. In no area is this truer than in the area of discipline, since it is that which is done, either by oneself or others, to promote development in discipleship. In community, each one is responsible for the other; the community as a whole is responsible for each one; and each and every one is responsible to the community. Our guide for the process of discipline is the teaching of Jesus Christ in Matthew 18:15-18.

Any of the following shall be considered as an adequate cause for dismissal of a student from the Theological Seminary.

- Immoral conduct, including cheating and/or plagiarizing of other student papers.
- Flagrant violation of seminary rule.

Remediation

An incident by a student may warrant immediate disciplinary action on any particular level. The levels described below are suggestive in nature. Steps and levels described compliment the discipline described in the Student Handbook.

The purpose of the remediation process is to assess and enhance student abilities, competencies, achievement, personal formation and potential for spiritual, personal, ministerial and professional development.

As a result of assessment of a student's achievement, competency, or personal formation at any time while a student is enrolled at the Seminary, a student may experience remedial action at various levels.

- Intervention between students and faculty, Seminary administration or staff
- To complete additional work in academic areas, including academic and clinical work
- Assistance with personal and professional formation, including personal mentoring, supervision or counseling
- To be transitioned to another or related program of study
- To be placed on probation
- To be dismissed from the Seminary

At the level of intervention between students and faculty, Seminary administration or staff; students may contact:

1. The faculty person for the relevant course
2. Their academic advisor
3. The Director of Student Services
4. The VP for Academics

Reasons for intervention may include assistance with:

- Coursework
- Practicum or internship site or supervisory issue
- Program requirements
- Discipline

At the level of completion of additional academic work in the Seminary, a student may meet with:

1. The faculty person for the relevant course
2. Their academic advisor
3. The Director of Student Services
4. The VP for Academics

At this level students may be assessed by the Assistant to the VP of Academics or the Discipline Committee to be in need of:

- Added courses, practicum and/or internships to improve an area of academics
- The retaking of courses, practicum and/or internships to improve academic and/or professional development
- Assistance during academic probation or academic dismissal as defined in the Seminary Catalog Academic Policy section

At the level of assistance with personal and/or professional formation, including personal mentoring, supervision or counseling, students may request the Assistant to the VP of Academics to review a particular incident or require that students:

- Receive further academic advising from his or her academic advisor
- Receive personal counseling
- Receive mentorship from a faculty member or other counseling professional
- Receive additional supervision from a practicum or internship supervisor

At the level of transition to another or related program of study, such action may take place at the:

- Request of the student
- At the recommendation of the student's faculty advisor
- Assessment and determination of the Seminary Academics Office
- Criteria for the transition to another or related program may include the student's:
 - Academic performance
 - Clinical performance in a practicum or internship
 - Student personal preference

Discipline Policy

At the level of probation from the Seminary, probationary action may be taken by the Seminary's Academics Office or Office of Ministry Formation. Probationary action may be the result of:

- Student unsatisfactory academic progress as defined in the Seminary Catalog in the Academics section
- A violation as described in the Seminary Student Handbook, under the sections entitled, "Student Responsibility," "Student Discipline," and "Student Grievance Policy"
- Assessment and action by a Discipline Committee appointed by the Director of Student Services.

At the level of dismissal from the Seminary, dismissal may be taken by the Seminary's Academics Office or Office of Ministry Formation. Dismissal may be the result of:

- Student unsatisfactory academic progress as defined in the Seminary Catalog in the Academics section
- A violation as described in the Seminary Student Handbook, under the sections entitled, "Student Responsibility," "Student Discipline," and "Student Grievance Policy"
- Assessment by Ministerial Development Committee

Procedure

1. All members of the seminary community have an obligation to see that seminary standards and regulations are maintained. Flagrant disregard and violation of these should be reported to the Office of Student Services.
2. A student reported for, or accused of, serious violation shall be interviewed first by the Director of Student Services for clarification and guidance, and then, if he or she deems it necessary, the case may be reviewed by a committee composed of the Director of Student Services, Dean of Ministries and SGA President for the purpose of:
 1. formulating charges;
 2. determining the degree of repentance and the willingness to reform;
 3. recommending further action;
 4. the right to confront witnesses against them.
3. A student may waive the right to appear before this committee and appear before the Discipline Committee if done so in writing.
4. If further disciplinary action is recommended, the accused shall appear before the Discipline Committee. The committee shall consist of three faculty members from the Ministerial Development Committee appointed by the President, one of whom shall chair the committee, and one student who shall be the President of the Student Body or another SGA officer appointed by the President.
5. All students are hereby advised that in such a case, they have the following rights:
 1. The right to present their case;
 2. The right to be accompanied by an advisor
 3. The right to call witnesses in their behalf;
6. The student shall be notified in writing of the time and place of the hearing and of the charges to be brought against him or her at least 24 hours ahead of Time.
7. The committee shall meet with the accused and his or her advisor (if the accused so desires).
8. The chairman of the committee shall read the charges as formulated by the first hearing, along with the resultant findings and recommendations.
9. The committee shall hear the accused present his or her side of the case with whatever evidence and witnesses he or she may have.
10. The accused shall be excused while the committee deliberates and reaches a verdict. Then, the committee determines an appropriate action regarding the verdict. The accused shall then be recalled and informed of the decision.
11. The student may appeal the action of the committee to the President within 48 hours, and the decision of the President shall be final.
12. Records of hearings relating to discipline shall be kept in the office of the President.
13. The Seminary reserves the right to notify the proper ecclesiastical body of any immoral conduct.

Student Grievance Policy

The goal of the Pentecostal Theological Seminary is to be a Community of Faith. As such, we realize situations may arise that may need help in being resolved. A grievance is defined as a complaint or concern a student has regarding a faculty or staff member that adversely affects his or her academic career or personal well-being.

(Note: This policy is not designed for grade appeals).

1. The biblical way of resolving conflict is to meet face to face to resolve any break in fellowship (Matt. 18:17).
2. If the student cannot resolve the conflict with the other party, he or she may take another person with him/her for the purpose of assisting with mediation.
3. If the issue cannot be resolved in step one or two the student may submit a letter to the Director of Student Services or the Vice President for Academics if it is an academic matter. The letter must be received within 30 days of the actual event. The letter must contain an explanation of the grievance and supporting documents.
4. If the grievance is not resolved in steps one or two either the Vice President for Academics, the Director of Student Services or the student can ask that the Director of Student Services convene an arbitration committee. This committee will convene within two weeks. This committee will be composed of three members appointed by the President to include:
 - A. A faculty member;
 - B. A member of the human resources committee;
 - C. Another person appointed by the President. (The student may also have the President of SGA present)
5. The committee will immediately give a written report of the outcome of the meeting to the Vice President for Academics or Director of Student Services.
6. If mediation or arbitration is not chosen or it was not successful, the Vice President for Academics or Director of Student Services must respond in writing to the student within two weeks of receiving the student's letter stating the decision of the grievance committee and the reason for such decision.
7. If the student is not satisfied with the decision of the committee, Vice President for Academics or Director of Student Services, an appeal may be made to the President to review and will involve the Administrative Ministry Team at the President's discretion. The appeal must be made within 48 hours and include the materials described above and the Dean's or Director's response. A decision will be given within two weeks. This decision will be final.

State Authorization and Complaint Process

State Authorization is a legal issue related to institutional adherence of the state requirements for colleges to secure authorization to offer Pentecostal Theological Seminary (PTS) instruction in the state. Click here for more information, or visit this website: <https://www.ptseminary.edu/pt-seminary-state-authorization-complaint-process.php>

Student Government Association

The Student Government Association is composed of student members that are elected by the student body once a year each spring, including the four offices of President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer. These officers are considered members at large having one who serves as the lead member of the SGA. The purpose of the Student Government Association is:

1. To dialogue with the Seminary administration and faculty on how students can make a significant contribution to the thought, life, and functioning process of the Seminary.
2. To provide students with a voice for enunciating student concerns in matters that affect them.
3. To serve the administration as a means of information on student concerns, existing conditions as perceived by the students, and proposals for actions and change.
4. To serve as a coordinating agency for approved student activities and forums.

The following represents the committees of the SGA, including their corresponding Seminary office:

1. Curriculum Academics Office
2. Library Representative to the Library Committee
3. Worship/Chapel Worship/Chapel & President
4. Recreation/Fellowship Director of Student Services
5. International Students Director of Student Services

Student Organizations

By October 15 of each new school year, every voluntary student organization shall deposit with the office of Student Services the following:

1. A list of current members
2. A list of current officers, committees, and the name of the faculty advisor
3. An updated copy of the constitution, if it has been modified since the year before
4. An annual report of the group's activity, its history and accomplishments, which should be prepared at the end of the spring semester.

Student organizations desiring to sponsor a social or religious function on or off campus should contact the Director of Student Services to coordinate activity schedules.

CENTER FOR LATINO STUDIES

Diploma in Wesleyan-Pentecostal Ministry (90 credit hours)

Pentecostal Theological Seminary (PTS) has developed a Diploma in Wesleyan Pentecostal Ministry (DWPM) to engage students in an integrated course of study that qualifies them to do seminary academic work. This program ensures the development of core knowledge and learning competencies in eight key areas. This program has been designed following the guidelines provided by a Joint Commission of the Asociación para la Educación Teológica Hispana (AETH) and the Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada (ATS), which seeks to provide students who have successfully completed Bible institutes or denominational education a pathway to continue to graduate level training.

The content of the DWPM is designed to help students develop a biblical theology that enables them to appropriate the redemptive message of the Christian faith and serve with the spirit of the servant leader to their communities. All this ministerial formation is provided within the context of Wesleyan-Pentecostal theology.

Both the Center and Certificate emphasize academic quality, social and cultural sensitivity for students, and the unequivocal commitment to the church and society as servant/leaders. The program is part of the non-graduate credit certificate curriculum of PTS and helps students complete the necessary requirements for admission into the Master Programs of PTS.

Diploma in Wesleyan-Pentecostal Ministry Outcomes

1. To help ministers within and outside the Church of God, whether full-time, part-time, or volunteer, to bring their academic development to seminary entrance qualification level.
2. To offer a seminary qualifying academic program in order to train and equip biblical, theological, and in the area of general studies, ministers in the USA and around the world.
3. To equip students for entrance into and completion of Master's Degree Programs of the Pentecostal Theological Seminary of the Church of God.
4. To provide ministry training for that promotes Wesleyan-Pentecostal praxis that is committed to the mission of the Church.

Program Structure and Mobility

The DWPM consists of 90 credits hours which are divided as follows:

Area I: Biblical Studies, 24 credits;

Area II: Theological and Historical Studies, 24 credits;

Area III: Life and Ministry of the Church and Pastoral Formation, 24 credits

Area IV: Personal Formation for Ministry Studies 3 credits; and Area V: Studies Related to Ministry Training, 15 credits

The total credit hours to complete this program are 90. The program combines on-campus, synchronous, hybrid, and online delivery methods.

For a full description of the Center and the DWMP see the Center's "Student Handbook".

Master's Degrees

AREA I – BIBLICAL STUDIES

Biblical revelation is the foundation and source of the Church's message. As a church we affirm "that we accept and stand for the whole Bible rightly divided, and for the New Testament as our rule of faith and practice . . . (and that the New Testament is) . . . the only rule for government and discipline." The study of the Scriptures in the context of the history and culture of its own times prepares the student to understand and to interpret the Word of God for today's world. The development of competence in exegesis and exposition furnishes the student with tools for his or her role as interpreter and proclaimer of the Word.

The objectives of the Seminary in the area of Biblical Studies are:

1. To aid the student in the acquisition of skills necessary to interpret and understand the Scriptures;
2. To instill in the student the importance of personal integrity and emphasize that integrity grows out of Biblical roots and is manifested in spiritually fruitful, interpersonal relationships; and
3. To encourage sensitivity to the Holy Spirit in all areas of life and ministry, especially in anointed preaching and teaching of the Word.
- 4.

AREA II – HISTORICAL AND THEOLOGICAL STUDIES

The Word has come down to the present day through the mediation of the Church; and the Church's understanding of the Word has influenced its own history and theology in each age. As students become acquainted with the history of the Church as an institution and with the historical development of Christian doctrine, they are given insight for evaluating various contemporary theologies, enabling them to develop a sound, biblical-theological position which will inform and undergird their ministry.

The objectives of the Seminary in the area of Historical and Theological Studies are:

1. To teach the faith and history of the Church, especially the deep Scriptural holiness and Pentecostal themes which for centuries have nourished the people of God and figured so prominently in the formation of the Church of God;
2. To promote a historically informed appreciation of the doctrines and ministries of the Church in today's world;
3. To provide a theological foundation for a ministry of servant leadership and a commitment to an international, multicultural Church with a worldwide mission to all peoples, but especially to the poor; and
4. To model and inculcate a sense of the inner relationship of doctrine and spiritual formation and the way in which sound doctrine makes ministry practice truly good ministry when there is a proper integration of theology and practice.

AREA III – STUDIES IN THE LIFE AND MINISTRY OF THE CHURCH

The Church must live and minister in today's world, with all of its cultural and ethnic variations, as well as its uncertainties, problems, and hurts. Through the insights of theology and the social sciences, the student is encouraged to come to grips with what it means to be the people of God in one's own cultural context. The ministry of the Church in today's world is studied from different perspectives, using different methods of teaching for the purpose of developing in the student the requisite ministry competencies.

The objectives of the Seminary in the area of Studies in the Life and Ministry of the Church are:

1. To facilitate the development of a theology and practice of ministry which is biblically sound, historically informed, and relevant to contemporary human needs; and
2. To impart a comprehensive and integrated vision of the human condition in order to enable one to minister to the whole person in his or her socio-cultural setting.

AREA IV – PERSONAL FORMATION FOR MINISTRY

At the core of preparation for ministry is one's personal formation. The person who serves in Christian ministry must be above reproach in character, knowledgeable of the Scriptures, established in the faith, and disposed towards sacrificial service. This requires a lifelong commitment to personal discipleship, faithful union with the Church, obedience to the great commandment to love God and neighbor, and fulfillment of the Great Commission. The integration of personal faith with biblical-theological studies and ministry practices is an essential component of formation for Christian ministry.

The objectives of the Seminary in the area of Personal Formation for Ministry are:

1. To cultivate the development of a personal identity in Christ which integrates one's personal story with that of the people of God, the Christian faith, and the mission of the Church;
2. To nurture commitment to lifelong discipleship characterized by unity with the body of Christ, stewardship in a local congregation, worship, and spiritual disciplines (including the intellectual love of God); and
3. To provide a community of faith and fellowship that will enrich the student's life and family for ministry in the Church.
- 4.

PRE-SEMINARY PREPARATION

Seminary work demands more than the singular pursuits of either academics or skill enhancement. Theological work requires an integration of head and heart that is biblically grounded, historically informed, theologically sound, and contextually relevant. It is therefore recommended that whenever possible, students at the undergraduate level obtain a good, general working knowledge of the Bible, church history, world history, the arts and sciences (including behavioral/social sciences), critical thinking, research and writing skills, philosophy, world religions, etc. One year of biblical Greek and/or Hebrew is strongly recommended for the Master of Divinity and Master of Theological Studies. Since the Seminary has established such a strong academic reputation, with many graduates having been admitted to the top doctoral studies programs, undergraduate students who desire advanced Seminary placement are urged to consult with the Vice President for Academics as early as possible during their undergraduate program. (See Advanced Standing with Credit)

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS

The Seminary understands itself to be the church gathered for theological education. It is a community of faith, love, and learning. All programs of study are viewed from this perspective.

The Master of Divinity and Doctor of Ministry programs require the equivalent of a minimum of one year of residential coursework. This coursework may be completed at the Seminary main campus or at approved extensions. Transfer credit cannot count toward meeting this residency requirement. In addition to course requirements, students are expected to participate in a variety of programs which help to nurture the community of faith: Pentecostal Foundations for Christian Ministry and Study, Supervision and Assessment, Ministerial Development, Chapel, Community of Faith (Counseling Development Group for counseling students), Ministers Week, and Church of God History and Polity.

Pentecostal Foundations for Christian Ministry and Study (SA 801)

All students are required to successfully complete Pentecostal Foundations for Christian Ministry and Study within their first 12 hours of coursework. Offered during the Fall and Spring terms each year, this course makes it possible for the students to dialogue with various faculty members concerning the integration of theology, ministry, and life.

Supervision and Assessment

At various points in the students' educational and ministerial development, they are given special occasions to assess their readiness for ministry. At the beginning of the Seminary experience, students are carefully assessed through an evaluation of their application for admission and the inventory/evaluation program, which is designed to assess intellectual abilities and psychological development. During the first semester, other assessments are given to determine readiness and aptitude for ministry. Students are thus encouraged to self-evaluate, and individual programs are designed accordingly. To aid in this initial assessment process, the students are required to take SA 801 - Pentecostal Foundations for Christian Ministry and Study. This three-hour course is team-taught and allows the students to assess in a very basic way their readiness for the study of theology and ministry.

Academic, formational, and ministry practice evaluation are part of a continuing program of student assessment. In addition to evaluation of the student's course work by the course instructors, there is ongoing assessment of personal and ministerial formation throughout the student's Seminary experience. This process involves (1) various assessment instruments through participation in the Pentecostal Foundations course, (2) four semesters of participation in a Community of Faith and Ministry Development Group each of which will include reflection on ministry practice and personal formation, (3) the development of a portfolio and capstone project which demonstrate successful completion of degree program outcomes, (4) a mid-program review with a faculty advisor to assess progress in achievement of degree program outcomes, (5) a final-program review including a public presentation of the student's capstone project, and (6) assessment of supervised ministry experiences (an internship and/or practicum depending on degree program and student assessments).

Ministerial Development

The Ministerial Development Committee, comprised of faculty, staff, and students, has the responsibility to design and require specific ministry programs which will enhance student development. At any time during the course of one's program, a student may be asked to appear before the Ministerial Development Committee to respond to one or more of the following areas: academic/ministerial difficulties, discipline issues, or personal crises and problems.

Chapel

The development of the spiritual life is of paramount importance to all Christians, especially to those who are called to, and in the process of preparing themselves for, Christian ministry.

Regular chapel services, which are held on Tuesday and Thursday of each week, are designed to be meaningful worship experiences for the whole Seminary community, and attendance is required. It is our desire that these services be spiritually enriching and supportive of the Seminary's process of ministerial preparation and formation.

Through regular chapel services and special services, Seminary students have the opportunity to minister to each other and to be ministered to by outstanding ministers from a broad and varied experience.

Community of Faith and Counseling Development Groups

All degree-seeking students are required to be part of a Community of Faith (COF) or Counseling Development Group (CDG) which meets weekly with a faculty facilitator or other approved leadership. The purpose of the COF and CDG is sharing one's testimony, receiving and giving care, and development in ministry practice. Students must earn four credit hours by participating in not less than four semesters of the COF or CDG.

Ministers' Week

Ministers' Week is an occasion for the Seminary community to join with representatives of leadership, various general departments, and other educational institutions of the Church to consider vital aspects of contemporary ministry from an interdisciplinary perspective, using various educational methods and in a manner which models the integration of faith and practice which is the hallmark of the Seminary.

Ministerial Credentials

Church of God students who are planning to enter full-time Christian service and who have not yet received ministerial credentials are encouraged to make application for ministerial credentials early in their seminary career, as this will assist in the formation of a ministerial identity. The credentialing process is overseen by the State Administrative Bishop of the state or territory where one is a member. Credentials are granted by the denomination through a process that includes a written application, endorsement by one's State Administrative Bishop, one's pastor, and the local congregation of one's membership, and written and oral examinations administered by a duly appointed Examining Board. With the approval of a student's State Administrative Bishop, ministerial exams may be administered by an Examining Board at the Seminary.

Also, it is the policy of the Church of God to allow a student at the point of graduation with a Masters degree from PTS to be exempt from the written examination for advancement in ministerial rank. This applies to the initial rank of Exhorter or advancement from Exhorter to Ordained Licensed Minister or Advancement from Ordained Licensed Minister to Ordained Bishop. Students wishing to take advantage of this program must be otherwise qualified for the advance and they must complete the normal application process through their respective State Offices.

All Church of God Students are strongly encouraged to take Church of God History and Polity (HS 650) if they have not already taken it at the undergraduate level. Successful completion of this course is a prerequisite for any student wishing to be examined at the seminary for ministerial credentials or advancement in ministerial rank. For more information contact the Ministerial Development Committee.

PLACEMENT

General. Assistance with placement in ministerial service is done after careful assessment of the student's story/autobiography, talents, experience, and ongoing ministerial development needs. Students are encouraged to work through their denominational channels (state bishops, district overseers, departments, etc.) when inquiring about ministerial vacancies and needs.

Chaplaincy. The Seminary offers specialized training opportunities for students interested in military, prison, hospital, campus, industry, and other institutional chaplaincy programs. Candidates for authorized chaplaincy positions are screened and processed through the Church of God Chaplains Commission.

DURATION

All course credits applied toward degree requirements must be earned within ten (10) years of the awarding of the degree.

MASTER OF DIVINITY (74 - 80 Credit Hours)

The purpose of the Master of Divinity (MDIV) degree program is to prepare men and women for effective ministry as pastors, evangelists, missionaries, chaplains, counselors, or other ministries. The student is seen as an active learner who is growing while developing his or her own unique gifts and style for ministry.

The MDIV program is structured to give each student a balanced exposure to theological studies in three years. The program also provides for flexibility in preparation according to personal calling and needs. A faculty advisor assists the student in selecting the courses most appropriate to the individual's stage of development, interests, and emerging goals in ministry.

The MDIV degree requires the successful completion of 74 or 80 semester hours (depending on language requirements such as Hebrew or Greek) with a GPA of 2.0 or above on a 4-point scale. Up to 37/40 credit hours of work may be accepted by transfer of courses (from accredited schools with a grade of C or better) upon the approval of the Vice President for Academics.

MASTER OF DIVINITY LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon graduation, students will be able to:

- Pentecostal Scholarship: demonstrate the knowledge and skills necessary for the ongoing integration of theological study with life and ministry.
- Formation: demonstrate an established testimony of personal and ministerial formation that bears evidence of commitment to live under the lordship of Jesus Christ.
- Pentecostal Worship: articulate, practice, and lead others to practice Pentecostal Worship.
- Holy Witness: articulate, practice, and lead others to practice Holy Witness.
- Covenant Community: articulate, practice, and lead others to practice Covenant Community.

DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

BIBLICAL LANGUAGE

The ability to use Greek or Hebrew for biblical exegesis is required. If the applicant has not had six hours of undergraduate study in one of the biblical languages, it is recommended that these courses be taken as early as possible (preferably, the summer before the student's first Fall semester). In order to be exempted from the six hour biblical language requirement, the student must complete a Course Waiver/Substitution Form located in the PTS Forms Site.

PORTFOLIO AND CAPSTONE

Prior to graduation, Master of Divinity students must present a portfolio that demonstrates successful attainment of each of the degree program desired outcomes. In keeping with the Seminary's commitment to prepare persons for ministry in today's world, these portfolios are to be constructed in digital form. Students are expected to compile their portfolios as they progress through the program. The portfolio will be reviewed by the student's faculty advisor at the time of the mid-program review. During the student's final semester, the portfolio will be incorporated into the student's capstone experience, which will include a public review of the portfolio.

During the student's final semester prior to graduation, he or she will enroll in the Master of Divinity Capstone Course. This course will guide the student in the final preparation and public presentation of the portfolio.

ASSESSMENT

An extensive program of assessment of the student's readiness for ministry is integrated into the Master of Divinity degree program. This program of assessment is designed (1) to assist the student in recognizing his or her personal ministry gifts and callings, (2) to assist the student in personal formation as a Christian minister, and (3) to guide the student into successful attainment of the degree program outcomes.

At the beginning of the Seminary experience students are assessed through an evaluation of their application for admission and various assessment instruments which are designed to indicate intellectual abilities and to assess psychological readiness for ministry. In addition, students are assessed for their need for supervised ministry. During the first semester other inventories are administered in conjunction with the Pentecostal Foundations for Christian Ministry and Study course to assist in this process.

MID-PROGRAM REVIEW

Near the midpoint of the degree program (during the third semester as a full-time student or during the semester following the completion of twenty-four hours) a student must complete a mid-program review. This review will be conducted with the faculty advisor and will focus on the student's progress toward the five core outcomes of the degree. Specifically, the review will assess the student's degree program portfolio as the primary indicator of progress toward graduation. Failure to demonstrate acceptable progress toward degree completion may result in referral to the Ministerial Development Committee for additional assessment and the formation of a personalized plan of study.

FINAL PROGRAM REVIEW

During the student's final semester, he or she must complete an end-of-program review. This final review will be integrated into a capstone experience and will be comprised of two components. First, the student will defend his or her portfolio with his or her faculty advisor in order to assess the achievement of the degree program outcomes. Second, the student will make a public presentation of his or her portfolio along with other capstone requirements.

MINISTRY SUPERVISION AND INTERNSHIP

Successful completion of the Master of Divinity degree program requires the student to demonstrate the integration of knowledge and skills with both personal development and the practice of ministry. Supervised ministry experiences are essential to this process. Students should keep in mind that the purpose of these experiences is personal formation for ministry through experiences of ministerial activities and skill development. To this end, the Master of Divinity program requires the successful completion of a ministry internship. Students may elect or be required to also complete a practicum in a specialized area of ministry.

During the second academic year, or after completion of 39 hours, Master of Divinity students are required to meet with the Ministerial Development Committee to review and evaluate the student's seminary and ministry experiences. This meeting follows shortly after the mid-program review with the faculty advisor and will include a summary review of the student's developing portfolio. The primary purposes of this meeting with the committee are to identify an acceptable internship for the student and to give direction to the student for the successful attainment of the degree outcomes. Prior to the meeting, the student will, in writing, project plans for the successful completion of the degree, including an internship that expands his or her ministerial development and affords appropriate supervision in the integration of ministry activity with personal formation. The committee may prescribe a curricular course of study including designated supervised ministry experiences. It is the responsibility of the student to schedule this meeting through the Office of Ministerial Development. The Office of Ministerial Development shall provide the requisite forms for the meeting. A student who feels there are reasons to be exempted from an internship may, with the approval of his or her faculty advisor and Community of Faith leader, apply to the Ministerial Development Committee for an exemption from an internship.

DEGREE CONCENTRATIONS

The student has a choice of either declaring an area of concentration in his or her MDIV degree program or pursuing a "general" MDIV degree program. If the student does NOT declare an area of concentration and wishes to pursue the general MDIV degree, he or she should complete the remaining credit hours as "general electives." Concentrations require a minimum of 18 hours within a designated area of study in addition to required courses. However, up to 6 hours of the required courses in an area of concentration can be applied toward the concentration. When a student decides on a concentration, every effort will be made to assign the student to a faculty advisor in that concentration. Students may elect a concentration in one of the following areas.

CONCENTRATION IN BIBLICAL STUDIES (4 concentrations possible)

1. Concentration in Biblical Studies

Eighteen (18) hours that constitute this concentration may be chosen from any Biblical Studies course offerings as approved by a Biblical Studies advisor. Six (6) hours of the eighteen (18) may come from the required courses in Biblical Studies.

Ability to use Greek or Hebrew for biblical exegesis is required. A student who has not completed at least six (6) hours of undergraduate biblical language study must also complete either Hebrew I and II or New Testament Greek I and II. (First-year courses in Greek and Hebrew do not count toward the concentration.)

2. Concentration in Old Testament

Eighteen (18) hours that constitute this concentration may be chosen from any course offerings in Old Testament as approved by a Biblical Studies advisor. Six (6) hours of the eighteen (18) may come from the required courses in Biblical Studies.

Ability to use Hebrew for biblical exegesis is required. A student who has not completed at least six (6) hours of undergraduate Hebrew language study must also complete Hebrew I and II. (Hebrew I and II do not count toward the concentration.)

3. Concentration in New Testament

Eighteen (18) hours that constitute this concentration may be chosen from any course offerings in New Testament as approved by a Biblical Studies advisor. Six (6) hours of the eighteen (18) may come from the required courses in Biblical Studies.

Ability to use Greek for biblical exegesis is required. A student who has not completed at least six (6) hours of undergraduate Greek language study must also complete Greek I and II. (Greek I and II do not count toward the concentration.)

4. Concentration in Biblical Languages

Eighteen (18) hours that constitute this concentration may include six (6) hours from required courses in Biblical Studies.

At least twelve (12) hours can be drawn from Greek III, Hebrew III, Aramaic, New Testament Textual Criticism, Septuagint, Egyptian Hieroglyphics, Ugaritic, Akkadian and/or up to two additional book studies.

Ability to use Greek or Hebrew for biblical exegesis is required. A student who has not completed at least six (6) hours of undergraduate biblical language study must also complete either Hebrew I and II or New Testament Greek I and II. (First-year courses in Greek and Hebrew do not count toward the concentration).

CONCENTRATION IN HISTORICAL STUDIES

Students must complete at least six (6) hours from the following list of courses:

HS 610 The Early Church

HS 630 United States Church History: 1607-1820

CONCENTRATION IN MINISTRY LEADERSHIP

In the Area 3 requirements, students with a concentration in Ministry Leadership are required to complete:

ML 701 Ministry of the Word or ML 702 Expository Preaching; and ML 720 Pastoral Ministries or CO 701 Counseling Skills.

Eighteen (18) credit hours of ministry leadership electives (courses with a ML course prefix) are also required. Students should consult their academic advisor when selecting ministry leadership electives. With the approval of the advisor, students have the option of selecting other courses in, or relating to, pastoral ministries.

CONCENTRATION IN COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT AND URBAN CARE

NT 520 Matthew
NT 540 James
OT 542 Isaiah
OT 587 Wisdom Books

Students must take Christian Ethics-Pentecostal Theology for Social Engagement TS/LC 680 and one (1) of the following:

CF 722 The Disciple Making Pastor
CO 701 Counseling Skills
CO 703 Human Growth and Transformation

MASTER OF THEOLOGICAL STUDIES (48 - 60 Credit Hours)

The Master of Theological Studies (MTS) is a two-year graduate degree designed to give students an opportunity to acquire focused knowledge in a specific theological discipline. The distinctive approach and contributions of the Pentecostal Theological Seminary in the area of Pentecostal theology broadly defined have had a global impact within the tradition and beyond including the development of distinctive approaches to a variety of theological disciplines. Such approaches are brought to bear in this program of study in an intentional way, offering candidates for this degree the opportunity to study and research a specific theological discipline within a constructive Pentecostal context that fosters personal formation and holistic integration.

PROGRAM LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon graduation the student will be able to:

1. Rightly divide (interpret/discern) the Word of God by means of a Pentecostal approach to Scripture that utilizes critical appropriation of spiritual and academic resources.
2. Practice and foster community of faith relationships.
3. Reflect critically upon one's story in light of the Christian story in order to form the individual and the community.
4. Practice personal and corporate spiritual disciplines (including prayer, fasting, Bible study, waiting upon God, and personal worship) supportive of Pentecostal spirituality.
5. Demonstrate knowledge of specific aspects of Pentecostal belief and practice.

PENTECOSTAL THEOLOGY CONCENTRATION (48 Credit Hours)

The Pentecostal Theology concentration in the Master of Theological Studies degree program is designed to give students the opportunity to acquire advanced integrative knowledge and skills in Christian theology, with particular focus on constructive theology in the Pentecostal tradition and understanding of the history of Wesleyan-Pentecostal theology and spirituality. A distinctive Wesleyan-Pentecostal hermeneutics is brought to bear in this degree program, offering candidates for this degree the opportunity to study, research, and construct within the Pentecostal tradition but with a view toward addressing the broader issues of the Christian church and the world in various global contexts.

CONCENTRATION LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon graduation the student will be able to:

1. Demonstrate a coherent understanding of the history of the Christian theological tradition in the light of Wesleyan-Pentecostal theology and spirituality.
2. Demonstrate theological knowledge and skills necessary for reading, constructing, and teaching theology in response to issues facing the church and the world in diverse contexts.
3. Interpret Scripture according to a Wesleyan-Pentecostal hermeneutical paradigm.
4. Appreciate and articulate the need for theology to remain rooted in, and in service of, the formational beliefs and practices of the community of faith.
5. Reflect critically on one's own story and the story of one's faith community in the light of biblical narrative and the church's history.

CONCENTRATION REQUIREMENTS

Candidates for the MTS with the concentration in Pentecostal Theology must complete 48 hours of prescribed coursework. This includes the successful completion of 9 hours of Biblical Studies Core, 16 hours of History & Theology Core, 7 hours of Pentecostal Formation, and 16 hours of electives either in theology or interdisciplinary as approved by the Concentration Coordinator. The candidate will produce a final project in the MTS Capstone Course.

MASTER OF THEOLOGICAL STUDIES - BIBLICAL STUDIES CONCENTRATION (60 Credit Hours)

The Master of Theological Studies (MTS) Biblical Studies concentration is designed to give students an opportunity to acquire focused knowledge in the specific discipline of Biblical Studies. The distinctive approach and contributions of the Pentecostal Theological Seminary in the area of Biblical Studies, which has had a global impact within the Pentecostal tradition and within the broader discipline of Biblical Studies, are brought to bear in this degree concentration in an intentional way, offering candidates for this degree the opportunity to study and research at the intersection of Biblical Studies and Pentecostal theology.

CONCENTRATION LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon graduation the student will be able to:

1. Experience and give priority to encounter with God through His Word.
2. Demonstrate knowledge of the Word of God by showing familiarity with the structure, content, theological emphases, canonical context, original context, church context, and Pentecostal context of the books of the biblical canon.
3. Demonstrate proficiency in the Biblical Languages.
4. Rightly divide (interpret/discern) the Word of God by means of a Pentecostal approach to Scripture that utilizes critical appropriation of spiritual and academic resources.
5. Practice and foster community of faith relationships around the Word of God.
6. Exhibit knowledge of the Word that informs Pentecostal faith and practice, both generally and more specifically.
7. Produce ministry of the Word through writing, speaking, and enacting the Word in relation to various gifts of ministry.
8. Discern the Spirit of the Word that attends the Word of the Spirit through reverential recognition and response to the presence and voice of the Holy Spirit in and through the Scripture, assessed in the context of Pentecostal community.
9. Be people of the Word by ingesting the Word to the point that it is embodied in one's life and witness.

CONCENTRATION REQUIREMENTS

Candidates for the MTS Biblical Studies Concentration must complete 48-60 hours (depending upon previous academic training) of prescribed coursework. This includes the successful completion of first year Greek and first year Hebrew (or their completion at undergraduate level), eleven hours of core courses in biblical studies including an introductory seminar on Biblical Studies in the Pentecostal Tradition (one hour) and the Biblical Studies MTS Capstone Seminar (one hour), thirteen hours of Pentecostal Theology and History including Pentecostal Foundations as well as four hours of Community of Faith Group participation, at least twelve hours of coursework in Biblical Studies based upon Greek and/or Hebrew, and twelve hours of elective Biblical Studies coursework. The candidate will produce a final project in the MTS Biblical Studies Concentration Capstone Course.

MASTER OF ARTS IN CHURCH MINISTRIES (48 Credit Hours)

The Master of Arts in Church Ministries (MACM) is a two-year program offering options for concentration in three areas of ministry: Discipleship and Christian Formation, Missions, and Ministry Leadership.

The program for the MACM degree is structured so that each student receives a balanced exposure to biblical, historical, and theological studies through the required courses, and develops skills and competence in one of the three areas of professional preparation.

MACM LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon graduation, students will be able to articulate, practice, and lead others to practice Pentecostal Worship, Holy Witness, and Covenant Community.

1. Pentecostal Scholarship: Upon graduation, students will be able to demonstrate the skills necessary for the ongoing integration of theological study with life and ministry.
2. Formation: Upon graduation, students will be able to demonstrate an established testimony of personal and ministerial formation that bears evidence of commitment to live under the lordship of Jesus Christ.
3. Worship: Upon graduation, students will be able to articulate, practice, and lead others to practice Pentecostal Worship.
4. Holy Witness: Upon graduation, students will be able to articulate, practice, and lead others to practice Holy Witness.
5. Covenant Community: Upon graduation, students will be able to articulate, practice, and lead others to practice Covenant Community.
6. Ministry Proficiency: Upon graduation, students will be able to demonstrate proficiency in knowledge and skills appropriate to a selected area of ministry leadership (concentration).

DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

The MACM requires the successful completion of 48 semester hours with a GPA of 2.0 or above on a 4-point scale. Up to 24 credit hours of work may be accepted by transfer from accredited schools with a grade of C or better upon approval by the Vice President for Academics.

Note: This degree program is structured with the courses to be taken in the areas of concentration. Students should consult regularly (at least twice per year) with the director of their MACM concentration.

DEGREE CONCENTRATIONS

The MACM degree program is designed to prepare persons for competent leadership in the following specialized areas of church ministry. Students must have a concentration and should complete 18 credit hours of work in one of the designated areas.

Note: Substituting a course not listed under the selected concentration requires the approval of the concentration coordinator.

CONCENTRATION IN DISCIPLESHIP AND CHRISTIAN FORMATION

This concentration is for those who plan to do Christian Education work in the local church, in day schools, youth camps, administrative positions, etc. For a concentration in Discipleship and Christian Formation, choose Foundations for Christian Formation (CF 701) and five of the following courses:

- CF 702 Inductive Bible Study
- CF 703 Human Growth and Transformation
- CF 704 The Pedagogy of the Holy Spirit
- CF 720 Teaching the Word
- CF 721 Formational Leadership
- CF 750 Children of the Kingdom
- CF 760 Ministry with Youth in the Postmodern Context
- CF 761 Discipling Youth
- CF 770 Adult Education and Ministry of the Laity
- CF 771 Ministry to Singles

CONCENTRATION IN MINISTRY LEADERSHIP

This concentration is for those who do not choose to pursue the Master of Divinity degree. For a concentration in Ministry Leadership choose Pastoral Ministries (ML 720), Expository Preaching (ML 702), Foundations for Christian Formation (CF 701), plus three of the following courses:

- CF 722 The Disciple Making Pastor
- CO 701 Counseling Skills
- ML 701 Ministry of the Word
- ML 711 Contemporary Models of Preaching
- ML 721 Church Administration and Leadership
- ML 723 Multiple Staff Ministries
- ML 724 Leadership Training Models
- ML 725 Church Music and Worship
- ML 741 Church Growth
- ML 750 Conflict Ministry
- ML 795 Contemporary Issues in Pentecostal Ministry

ML 798 Leading and Mobilizing Laity

For an Urban Mission focus under the Ministry Leadership concentration, a student would:

- a. Substitute Foundations for Wholistic Mission (ML/WM 760) for Expository Preaching (ML 702) or Foundations for Christian Formation (CF 701).
- b. Choose two (2) of the following:
 - CO 736 Intercultural Counseling
 - LC 701 Religion and Culture
 - TS/LS 680 Christian Ethics: Pentecostal Theology for Social Engagement
 - ML 721 Church Administration and Leadership
 - ML 722 Church Leadership
 - ML 761 Cross-Cultural Ministries in North America
 - ML 796 Urban Mission Area Studies
 - WM 730 Cultural Anthropology
 - WM 740 Contemporary World Religions
 - WM 752 Issues in Pentecostal/Charismatic Church Growth

CONCENTRATION IN WORLD MISSION AND EVANGELISM

This concentration is for those who plan to do any type of cross-cultural missions work, for those who are already involved in mission schools around the world, and for nationals who are planning to teach in mission schools. For a concentration in World Mission and Evangelism, choose Foundations for World Mission and Evangelism (WM 701), Cultural Anthropology (WM 730), and four of the following courses:

- ML 724 Leadership Training Models
- ML 741 Church Growth
- ML 742 Church Planting
- ML 760 Foundations for Wholistic Mission
- ML 761 Cross-Cultural Ministries in North America
- WM 740 Contemporary World Religions
- WM 750 Pentecostal Strategies of Missions
- WM 751 Principles

CONCENTRATION IN CHURCH PLANTING AND DEVELOPMENT

This concentration is for those who are planting a church or plan to plant a church, and for pastors who want to realize missional revitalization in their congregation. Students can choose to focus their study on church planting among their particular ethnic/cultural group, urban church planting and cross-cultural planting. This concentration is also available in Spanish with a Latino perspective. For a concentration in Church Planting and Development, students must take:

Select One:

ML 742 Church Planting (for church planters), or ML 741 Church Development (for pastors of existing churches)

Select One:

WM 730 Cultural Anthropology, or
WM/ML 760 Foundations for Wholistic Mission (for urban church planting)

Plus:

WM/ML 797 Pentecostalism and Social Transformation

And three electives from Area III: Studies in the Life and Ministry of the Church

MASTER OF ARTS IN COUNSELING (48 Credit Hours)

MISSION STATEMENT

The Master of Arts in Counseling *MAC presents the theory, method, and practice of counseling from a Pentecostal perspective. The program emphasizes distinctives of counseling for pastors and church staff members while also preparing those who will be counseling in other arenas, including those preparing for professional certification or state licensure by continuing from the Master of Arts in Counseling (48 credit hours) to the Master of Arts in Clinical Mental Health Counseling (78 credit hours). The degree concentration requires courses in Bible, doctrine, historical theology, and Pentecostal Foundations for Christian Ministry and Study, all of which form the substantive core required to integrate faith, spirituality, and counseling. Integration of Pentecostal theology, counseling theory, and practice is critical to the design of this degree.

MASTER OF ARTS IN COUNSELING LEARNING OUTCOMES

As a result of successfully completing the Master of Arts in Counseling program, students will have been able to do the following:

1. Demonstrate the possession of personality characteristics that enable him or her to establish and maintain therapeutic relationships with clients and to facilitate clients' constructive change processes.
2. Demonstrate a theoretical and applied knowledge of spiritual, theological and ecclesiastical integration of counseling, particularly from a Wesleyan-Pentecostal perspective, and as applied in Wesleyan-Pentecostal ecclesial contexts.
3. Present evidence of the characteristics, knowledge, and skills required of an effective helper; compliance with ethical standards and as appropriate to his or her credentials, provide an effective range of counseling, care and related services to the community.
4. Identify and apply effective counseling skills that help clients grow toward personal goals and strengthen their capacity to cope with life situations.
5. Successfully complete the core biblical, theological, historical, and applied ministry studies as required by the Seminary in order to demonstrate acquisition of knowledge and practice toward integration of counseling, Scripture, theology, history and other applied ministry studies.
6. Demonstrate the knowledge of and compliance with characteristics, knowledge, and skills required of an effective counselor/helper.
7. Demonstrate compliance with ethical standards of counseling and use counseling abilities appropriate to his or her credentials.

MASTER OF ARTS IN CLINICAL MENTAL HEALTH COUNSELING (78-Hour Degree Program)

MACMHC MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Master of Arts in Clinical Mental Health Counseling (MACMHC) is preparation for the eventual certification and/or licensure of students. Students will receive thorough integration training in professional counseling that will prepare them to sit for licensure examination in various states in the area of Mental Health Counseling. The program provides training for counselors that relates to the diagnosis of various mental disorders. They will be especially familiar with the DSM 5 and will be capable of diagnosing mental illnesses. The program is designed to train students so they can work in church settings, outpatient mental health settings, and inpatient settings. Students will be able to assess potential clients and compare their skills with client needs and treat or refer with confidence. The program also provides electives in couples counseling, marriage and family counseling, and gerontological counseling. The program is for students who desire professional level training in mental health counseling. The program includes the same essential Bible and theology core as other programs in the Seminary. Students in the program will not only be competent in mental health counseling, but will also be proficient in the academic study of, practical dialogue of, and professional leadership in religious, spiritual, biblical, and theological issues related to mental health counseling. Mental health counselors are valuable and sought for placement by a variety of growing public, private, educational, clinical, secular, and religious settings.

MACMHC LEARNING OUTCOMES

Students completing the 78-hour MACMHC degree program will be able to:

1. Demonstrate the possession of personality characteristics that enable him or her to establish and maintain therapeutic relationships with clients and to facilitate clients' constructive change processes.
2. Demonstrate a theoretical and applied knowledge of spiritual, theological and ecclesiastical integration of counseling, particularly from a Wesleyan-Pentecostal perspective, and as applied in Wesleyan-Pentecostal ecclesial contexts.
3. Present evidence of the characteristics, knowledge, and skills required of an effective helper.
4. Identify and apply effective counseling skills that help clients grow toward personal goals and strengthen their capacity to cope with life situations.
5. Successfully complete the core biblical, theological, historical, and applied ministry studies as required by the Seminary in order to demonstrate acquisition of knowledge and practice toward integration of counseling, Scripture, theology, history and other applied ministry studies.
6. Demonstrate the knowledge of and compliance with characteristics, knowledge, and skills required of an effective counselor/helper.

7. Demonstrate compliance with ethical standards of counseling and the use of counseling abilities appropriate to his or her credentials.
8. Demonstrate the ability to discern when individual or group counseling would be most helpful; understand basic principles of group dynamics; and become familiar with the major group therapies, stages of group development, group member roles, and research related to group counseling.
9. Demonstrate the ability to define and recognize the needs of multicultural and specific populations/counselees, and respond to such needs via effective intervention and/or appropriate referral.
10. Understand planning, administration, evaluation and program revision for the delivery of counseling and related services.
11. Promote healthy attitudes toward work and career plans; implement and evaluate career development programs; and facilitate client career development and mature life planning.
12. Demonstrate the ability to appraise the characteristics of students and counselees, describe the needs and potentialities of individuals; identify individual differences; and provide for recording and disseminating the resultant data.
13. Demonstrate the ability to conceptualize clients based on the assessment categories used in standardized diagnostic systems; maintain current and comprehensive financial, clinical, and other records related to a private or community-based agency counseling practice; and assist counselees, administrative staff, agency personnel, and parents in the location of and introduction to specialized referral agencies and services within the community.
14. Demonstrate the ability to consult with individuals, groups, institutions, and agencies on individual, group, family, and institutional programs and activities.
15. Demonstrate the ability to conduct research, to interpret clearly the implications of research data to professional staff members, parents, clients, referral agencies, and community resources, and to use the results of research in counseling, program development, and program revision.
16. Develop the ability to use their diagnostic skills when assessing clients during the intake session so that they can quickly develop a working diagnosis in order to direct treatment planning.
17. Learn to assess clients with in-depth clinical interview skills that will lead to more accurate initial diagnoses.

The MACMHC satisfies the academic requirements for National Certified Counselors with the National Board of Certified Counselors and for Licensed Professional Clinical Mental Health Counselors in all 50 U.S. states, according to an annual audit of state requirements conducted each spring. Internationally, mental health counseling recognition requirements may vary from United States criteria. State nomenclature may vary from state to state. As an example, rather than Licensed Professional Clinical Mental Health Counselor, a state may use Licensed Professional Counselor. Besides academic requirements, other state requirements include post-master's degree supervised experience, examinations etc. Students should inquire about licensure requirements with the board governing counseling licensure in their respective state.

A MACMHC program handbook entitled, Guidelines for the MACMHC, includes program requirements of students and is available upon request in the counseling departmental office.

For the Master of Arts in Clinical Mental Health Counseling, students must complete all General Degree Core Requirements and all Counseling Core Requirements. Students are further required to complete the minimum of 11 credit hours of counseling electives. A counseling elective is any course with a course number prefix CO that is not listed as a Counseling Core Requirement.

DOCTOR OF MINISTRY DEGREE

PURPOSE FOR DOCTOR OF MINISTRY DEGREE

The Primary Purpose of the Pentecostal Theological Seminary Doctor of Ministry degree is to nurture and train selected men and women to minister from a Wesleyan-Pentecostal perspective. The degree focuses on the general practice of ministry at an advanced level of competence in the various ministerial vocations. Graduates will be expected to function in the truest sense as “doctors” of ministry.

The ministerial vocations include (but are not limited to) (1) preaching the Word, (2) teaching the Faith, (3) providing pastoral care and counsel to the hurting, (4) evangelizing the lost, (5) leading in worship, (6) discipling others in Christian living, (7) challenging and enabling all members of the faith community to fulfill their callings in Christ, (8) facilitating koinonia within and among Christian congregations, (9) modeling and facilitating Christian (congregational) in ministries of mercy and justice in society at large, (10) overseeing and administering the various ministries of the local church.

ELIGIBILITY

Acceptance into the DMIN program requires the applicant to possess a Master of Divinity (MDIV) degree or its educational equivalent. Additionally, applicants must have a minimal Masters GPA of 3.00 on a 4.00 point scale.

Three years of active ministry beyond the completion of the first graduate, theological degree in an ongoing ministry setting is also required. If an applicant does not have the prerequisite 3 years of ministerial experience since receiving his/her earliest theological or related master's degree, to be admitted under an exemption the applicant must demonstrate the ability to integrate theology with the practice of ministry. Ways this may be done include the successful completion of integrative doctoral coursework or 10 years of effective Christian ministry. Normatively, 6 credit hours will be considered the equivalent of one year of the required ministerial experience. This does not guarantee acceptance into the program.

The endorsement of the applicant's ministerial bishop/overseer and constituents and a demonstration of desire and ability to mentor others in Pentecostal ministry are also criteria for program acceptance.

ADMISSION PROCEDURE

Before an applicant is considered for admission to the Pentecostal Theological Seminary and participation in the Doctor of Ministry program, the Seminary's Admissions Office must receive the following items:

1. A completed DMIN admission application form.
2. A $100 application fee (US currency) payable to the Pentecostal Theological Seminary (non-refundable)

3. Official academic transcripts from every college, university, graduate school and/or seminary attended. In the US, "official" transcripts must be sent directly from each institution to the Seminary's Admissions Office. Photocopies and scanned copies are not acceptable. Transcripts from schools outside the United States may need to be validated by the proper authorities. The Admissions Office can provide additional information.
4. Three (3) completed letters of recommendations (using PTS forms)
 - a. Personal Recommendation - family, friend, co-worker or classmate;
 - b. Academic Recommendation - professor or ministerial instructor; and
 - c. Professional/Ministerial Recommendation - employer, supervisor, bishop, overseer, or pastor.

(Departure from this list must be approved by the Admissions Office.)
1. Personal statement indicating personal background, positions in ministry, current ministerial credentials, continuing education experiences, future plans in ministry, purpose in pursuing the DMIN degree and areas of possible focus in the program. (Typed, 2 pages, double-spaced, 1-inch margins, including page numbers).
2. One academic paper from the applicant's graduate work.
3. A background check initiated by the applicant based on instructions provided by the Seminary. Cost for the background check is covered by the application fee.

International applicants must possess the appropriate visa for student enrollment. More information regarding student visa applications is available from the Seminary's Office of Enrollment Management.

NOTE: All required admission documents must be received by the Admissions Office before the DMIN applicant's request for acceptance will be considered.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Pentecostal Theological Seminary Doctor of Ministry program is a 36-unit program of doctoral level advanced seminary training. Students are expected to be active in ministry throughout the program of study. The program is designed to be completed in three to five years. Students in the program must maintain a 3.2 GPA or above on a 4.00 point scale.

The Seminary DMIN is a group-based (or cohort) program that expects a student to complete the core curriculum with the same set of peers. Each student is also required to create a context-based covenant group that assists with the assessment of his or her ministry context and with the design and implementation of the capstone project. Each student must identify a special ministry practice (such as preaching, teaching, counseling, evangelism, etc.) upon which to focus his or her studies. Under the supervision of a faculty advisor, students develop a study plan for their focus area.

The plan identifies the three "elective" courses that will relate to the focus area. The capstone project and dissertation will also be related to the area of focus. The project will identify an area of concern for Pentecostal ministry, formulate a ministry model to address the problem, implement the model, and, using pre and post tests, assess the effectiveness of the model. The dissertation will include an overview of the project and consider the implications of the project for the practice of Pentecostal ministry.

Group-Based Program

The DMIN program emphasizes personal and community development of the student. Personal development emphasizes the experience and practice of spiritual disciplines. Personal disciplines form the basis for ministry assessment and development. Community development is the practice of Christian faith in the context of relationships with others who share a common faith. Ministry and program assessments are training in both personal and community of faith context.

In order to fulfill the community and personal dimensions, students enter into the program and continue with colleagues in learning in their ministry context. The program is group-based. Students learn in group contexts by working with the same group of students through several courses, by assessing and approving various parts of their individual programs through a colloquium process, and by participating in a reflection group with persons with whom they minister at their individual contexts of ministry.

The DMIN is centered in a cluster or cohort group. Students move, as much as possible, through the core of the program with essentially the same group of peers, who will meet periodically at the same geographic location, not limited to the main campus of the Seminary. They will have the option of attending elective courses with other groups at other geographic locations. This model reflects the Seminary commitment to the development of community as a work of the Holy Spirit within the Body of Christ. The cluster groups will designate a student group coordinator to provide information and assistance with physical arrangements for the group, for example, meeting place, living accommodations, food, etc. The anticipated minimum for each group varies in order to anticipate attrition while guaranteeing the continued life of the cluster group.

Cluster groups outside the continental United States are subject to the same criteria as United States groups. Indigenous faculty who have received approval, orientation and part-time faculty status from the Seminary will share in instruction. Seminary main campus faculty also share instruction with accompanying translation of classes and written work. Grading and assessment will be done collaboratively.

Core Courses and Cluster Group

Students begin the group-based format during the first course of the program. They will be assigned to the same group based upon their similar program, locations, and other needs. The initial group learning experience is in experiencing the core courses together. Students are asked to remain with the same learning group during the first year for the duration of the core courses. During the core phase, students will mutually assess one another and develop a personal and community formational model for theological training.

Context-Based Covenant Group

During the first year, students develop a ministry reflection group at their individual settings of ministry. Participants are persons with whom the student ministers. The context-based covenant group continues throughout the life of the student's program. Maintaining a context-based covenant group is a required part of the program. Group format, program accountability, effectiveness and other pertinent concerns are monitored by the Seminary staff through reporting by the students and feedback responses from covenant group members. Potential members may include:

1. Denominational officials
2. Faculty
3. Ministerial colleagues
4. Laity in the local church
5. Professionals in the community
6. Fellow Students in the program.

TYPICAL COURSE PLAN FOR CORE CURRICULUM

Phase I: Assignments (July through Mid-September)

- Receive syllabi
- Order textbooks and other texts
- Reading and research requirements for Phase I

Phase II: Main Campus (2 weeks in September)

Typical Class Sequence: Monday - Friday; 8am - 5pm

Phase III: Assignments (October through December)

The deadline for completion of all assignments is December 15. Applications for Incompletes for completion of coursework must be approved by the course instructor, the faculty advisor, and the Vice President for Academics and must be filed by December 15. The deadline for completion of extended work is March 1.

RESIDENCY REQUIREMENT

Residency is to be completed on the main campus. The residency requirement is 12 credit hours. The other 24 credit hours may be taken entirely online.

RESEARCH MODULE WORKSHOP

Each student must attend a research module workshop conducted by the Pentecostal Resource Center and the Theological Seminary while the student attends a main campus course. The research module will provide orientation about the nature of theological research at the Doctor of Ministry level. Further, the research module will provide the students information and preliminary experience with the research resources of the Seminary. This includes a comprehensive orientation to the variety of library learning resources, literature review resources, holdings of the library that are particularly helpful for DMIN research, and computer accession of library holdings. The research module is preparatory for DMIN projects.

PROJECT/THESIS COLLOQUIUM PROCESS

At two junctures in the student's project/thesis a colloquium of faculty and students will be used to evaluate and approve the student's proposals and work. The two colloquium times are as follows:

1. Project/Thesis Prospectus Proposal
2. Project/Thesis Defense

The colloquium group for each of the above times is composed of a minimum of two approved faculty members and an approved learning group member. If a student who is not a member of the student's learning group participates, approval must be granted by the Director of the DMIN Program.

Colloquium group assignments are made after the student submits a request to the Director of the Doctor of Ministry program for a colloquium group to meet. Students submit requests for colloquiums when they are ready to enter each of the above-mentioned stages of the program.

Colloquia typically meet in conjunction with course meeting times. Colloquium meetings may be before, parallel with or after the class meetings for a course. Colloquium members and students submitting proposals or theses will be notified by the Doctor of Ministry Director about colloquia membership, meeting time, and location.

Colloquium members may or may not participate in the same colloquium group to which they are submitting a proposal or thesis. In other words, some or all of the student members of a colloquium group may both assess the proposals or theses of others as well as submit one's own proposal or thesis.

Colloquium groups may be multi-purpose. That is, groups assessing and approving Project Proposals may also assess and approve Project Thesis Proposals and or Project Thesis Defenses. Each member of a colloquium group votes upon the approval or disapproval of a proposal or thesis.

DISSERTATION STANDARD

Two copies of the DMIN student's dissertation are held in the William G. Squires Library when the student earns a final grade of B+ or higher on this paper.

MINISTRY SETTING

At the time of application, each prospective student is expected to have been in a setting of ministry long enough to have access to resources from the ministry setting necessary for completion of the program. For example, the student will have to be familiar enough with ministry colleagues and persons to whom the student ministers in order to recruit them and then effectively participate with them in a group process. Students are expected to integrate their academic study of faith and ministry with their actual experience and practice in a ministry setting.

TRANSFER OF CREDIT

Students may transfer up to 15 hours of elective credit provided the courses are approved as components of the student's focus area of study. Transfer courses must be recommended by the DMIN Director and approved by the Vice President for Academics. The courses must be from accredited institutions and on an equivalent doctoral level. Transfer of credit will not be given for course work more than 10 years old. Exceptions to this policy may be granted in cases where documentation and demonstration of course equivalency can be established.

COURSEWORK AND DISSERTATION DEADLINE

All DMIN coursework must be submitted by all enrolled DMIN students no later than March 1. Graduate candidates in the DMIN program must successfully defended their dissertation by March 1 to participate in graduation ceremonies.

SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROGRESS

In order to maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP), DMIN students must complete the DMIN within 5 years, with a minimum enrollment of 3 hours each for any of those years. The DMIN student must also maintain a 3.2 cumulative GPA or above on a 4.00 point scale and successfully complete 75% of attempted credit hours, with no more than one incomplete permitted at any given time. Failed grades, ungraded courses, incomplete grades and withdrawals are included when calculating this percentage. Students not demonstrating sufficient academic progress will be placed on Academic Warning for a year. A DMIN student on academic warning is required to follow an academic plan, developed in consultation with the DMIN Program Director and the Vice President for Academics. If sufficient academic progress is not achieved by the end of the probation year, the student will be placed on Academic Suspension. An individual may apply for readmission to the DMIN program after a year of Academic Suspension. In the case of re-admittance, the student would be on Academic Probation for the first year and must repeat course work for which he or she received a grade less than 2.7 on a 4.00 scale.

INTERRUPTION OF STATUS POLICY

Under extenuating circumstances (death of immediate family member, severe illness, change of ministry assignment, etc.), students may apply in writing to the DMIN Committee through the Director of the Doctor of Ministry program for approval of interruption of status. Interruption of status is normally granted for one academic year but may be extended to two academic years, if necessary. Students must continue to pay the annual DMIN fee during the interruption of status period. The time allocated to interruption of status will not apply to the 3-5 year limit for sufficient academic progress. Notification of approved interruption of status shall be given to the office of the Vice President for Academics and the Registrar.

Interruption of status is not available for current enrolled courses. Student requiring additional time for current courses must follow the policies for incompletes.

CONTINUANCE OF PROJECT/DISSERTATION INCOMPLETE FEE

For students who do not complete their program within 5 years and are permitted to continue, the student will be charged annually a Continuance of Project/Dissertation Fee equivalent to the current DMin one-hour tuition charge. Secondly, if the student is in the dissertation stage, his or her time can be extended until he completes the dissertation. This $545 ($565 effective Jan. 1, 2018) fee is applied every semester that a student does not complete his or her dissertation.

INCOMPLETE GRADES

An incomplete grade is not lightly given. It is designed for a rare occasion when the student has been seriously ill or suffered some other hardship beyond his or her control. A request for an incomplete grade must be requested no later than March 1st. A final grade of I will be recorded on the student's transcript. If the incomplete is not removed by the deadline recorded on the request form, a final grade of F will be recorded on the transcript. This grade cannot be changed and the student will be required to repeat the course. Scholarships will not cover the cost of repeated courses. An incomplete grade may affect the student satisfactory academic progress and financial aid eligibility. A DMIN student may also be prohibited from enrolling in J-term courses if he or she has an active Incomplete. In the event an official transcript is requested, the I grade will be changed to an F. Online courses are not eligible for Incomplete grades.

VALUES FOR LETTER GRADES

A = 4.0

A- = 3.7

B+ = 3.3

B = 3.0

B- = 2.7

C+ = 2.3

C = 2.0

C- = 1.7

D = 1.0

F = 0

F = 0 and affects the GPA.

AU, I, and W do not affect the GPA.

Note: No grade may be changed without written approval of the instructor and the Vice President for Academics. Any grade change submitted for a student who has not previously applied for an Incomplete will only be considered in exceptional cases. In such cases, student shall not be entitled to a grade higher than B. Student shall pay a $100 fee for the grade change. A written appeal can be made to the Academics Office by the faculty member and the student in question for circumstances deemed to warrant special consideration in handling such exceptional grade change requests.

DOCTOR OF MINISTRY SCHOLARSHIPS

Mission America Fund:

A senior pastor and/or senior pastor's spouse can receive sponsorship for their Seminary tuition. The contributing church may receive credit for World Missions sponsorship for monies designated to the senior pastor/spouse who is attending the Seminary. Churches should forward funds to the Seminary Business Office and designate funds to the Mission America Fund Project #8000023 "Pentecostal Training" and indicate the name of the senior pastor/spouse to be funded.

Alumni Scholarship:

Seminary graduate alumni are eligible for a 50% tuition scholarship on a 3-credit hour course per academic year. To apply for the scholarship, applicants must complete a FAFSA and Financial Aid Application (scholarships are applied towards tuition only student is responsible for fees).

Non-Alumni Scholarship:

Students attending their first year in the Doctor of Ministry program may apply for this $500 one-time scholarship. Applicants must complete a FAFSA and Financial Aid Application to apply for the scholarship.

DOCTOR OF MINISTRY TUITION AND FEES 2017-2018

Due to the nature of the DMin Program a student taking six credit hours (6) is considered a full-time student. Any student taking three credit hours (3) is considered a half-time student. However, students are expected to enroll in more credit hours to complete their program on time. See Typical Degree DMin Program Sequence above. (Tuition and fees are subject to change without notification.)

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

BIBLICAL STUDIES (500-599)

The Holy Scriptures are the foundation and course of the church's message. As a church we affirm "that we accept and stand for the whole Bible rightly divided and for the New Testament as our rule of faith and practice...[and that the New Testament is]...the only rule for government and discipline." The study of the Word and the doctrines of the Word against the background of the history and culture of its own times prepares the student to understand and to interpret the Word for today's world. The development of competence in exegesis and exposition furnished the student with tools for his or her role as interpreter and proclaimer of the Word of God.

The Interpretation of Scripture

BH501 Biblical Hermeneutics 3

This course investigates the integration of biblical hermeneutical theory and practice for the specific purpose of enhancing the usage of Scripture in the various christian settings (preaching, teaching, counseling, personal devotional reading, worship, witness, etc.). The interpretation of Scripture will be explored from a Pentecostal contextual perspective and understood to be an ecclesiastical procedure. Special emphasis will be given to the history of biblical hermeneutics, exegetical method, and their place within hermeneutics, inductive/deductive method, genre analysis, and Pentecostal/Charismatic engagement with hermeneutical concerns.

BH502 Capstone: MTS - Biblical Studies 1

NT 511 Biblical Studies in the Pentecostal Tradition 3

This course is designed to serve as an introduction to the world of Biblical Studies in the Pentecostal Tradition. After an overview of the development of Pentecostal hermeneutics as an academic discipline and a preliminary survey of early scholarly Pentecostal approaches to Biblical Studies the bulk of the course is devoted to examples from each part of the Biblical canon of constructive Pentecostal sources to specific books, texts, and/or topics. The work of individual scholars is examined and opportunity provided for interaction with significant contributors to this emerging discipline. The course concludes with a conversation about the future of Biblical Studies in the Pentecostal tradition. The seminar is required for all students pursuing the MTS Biblical Studies Concentration.

OLD TESTAMENT STUDIES (500-599)

AK 501 Introduction to Akkadian 1

This course is designed to provide a basic survey of Akkadian grammar and to show the relevance of Akkadian resources to the exegesis of the Old Testament. In addition, literature that is related to the Old Testament will be studied.

AR 501 Aramaic 1

This course is an introduction to biblical Aramaic. The grammar of biblical Aramaic will be taught in comparison to the grammar of biblical Hebrew. Readings from the Old Testament will comprise a portion of the course. (Prerequisite: HB 501)

EH 501 Egyptian Hieroglyphics 1

This course is designed to provide a basic survey of Egyptian hieroglyphs and Egyptian grammar and to show the relevance of Egyptian resources to the exegesis of the Old Testament. In addition, literature that is related to the Old Testament will be studied.

UG 501 Introduction to Ugaritic 1

GK 502 New Testament Greek II 3

This is a continuation of Greek I. The aim of the course is to enable the student to begin exegetical work in the New Testament. (Spring and July) (Prerequisite: GK 501)

GK 503 New Testament Greek III 3

This is a course in advanced Greek grammar and the use of the critical text. (Fall and Summer) (Prerequisites: GK 501 and GK 502)

GK 504 Rapid Reading in the Greek New Testament 1

This is a tutorial course with an emphasis on rapid sight reading of the Greek New Testament. It may be taken up to three times in different areas of the New Testament. (Prerequisites: GK 501, GK 502, and GK 503)

GK 507 Introduction to the Septuagint 3

This course is an introduction to the Greek translation of the Old Testament. The grammar of Septuagint Greek will be compared to the grammar of New Testament Greek. Readings from the Greek text will comprise a large portion of the course, but some attention will be given to the history of the Septuagint and its place in biblical studies. (Greek 501 and GK 502 are recommended as prerequisites.)

Introduction and History

NT 501 Pentecostal Explorations of the New Testament 3

This course is the Seminary's introductory course for New Testament study. It seeks to explore the nature and purpose of the New Testament by utilizing a distinctively Pentecostal approach to its study. The journey begins by raising the basic question, 'What is the New Testament' and continues by means of a brief survey of major scholarly approaches to the study of the New Testament. An articulation of a Pentecostal strategy for studying the New Testament follows, which has implications for issues of genre and methodology. With regard to genre, the documents fall into the following categories: stories of Jesus' life story of the early church letters and sermons of the early church and vision of the early church. With regard to methodology, the books are explored in the following ways: structure, content and theological emphases, canonical context (place in Scripture), original context (Sitz-im-Leben), church context (history of effect), and Pentecostal context. The course concludes with sections devoted to the text and canon of the New Testament.

NT 502 Hellenistic Background of the New Testament 3

This course seeks to identify the Hellenistic environment against which early church history should be viewed. Special attention is given to philosophies and religions of the Graeco-Roman world. The purpose of the course is to discuss major aspects of Greek and Roman piety as they emerge and develop in middle and late antiquity. This will include an attempt to understand the manifold ways in which persons of that time grasped the human situation, experienced the world and sought "salvation" through myths, symbols, and rituals.

NT 503 First Century Judaism 3

This course studies the social, religious, and cultural milieu of Judaism in the first century. A careful examination is made of the history and character of the various sectarian movements which belonged to post-exilic Judaism and which formed a significant aspect of the context in which Christianity emerged. These include what Josephus called the "four philosophies", viz., the Pharisees, the Sadducees, the Essenes, and the Zealots. The course will also study the Samaritans, the Ebionites and Philo, a representative of Hellenistic Judaism and take a look at Apocalyptic literature.

A selected topic related to New Testament studies is treated each time the following seminars are offered. Possible topics include: textual criticism, apocalyptic, archaeology, and the New Testament, etc.

New Testament Exegesis

NT 520 Matthew 3

This course is an exegetical study which seeks to understand the unique theological contribution of Matthew. Authorship, date, life setting, and structure are addressed. The content of the book is examined exegetically, with special attention given to the Sermon on the Mount. (Greek & English credit available)

NT 521 Mark 3

This Gospel of Mark is studied in the light of recent research, the results of which are surveyed with attention to those scholars whose contributions have been the most significant. Introductory matters include: authorship, provenance, purpose, and date. Selected passages are examined in an exegetical manner. (Greek & English credit available)

NT 522 Luke 3

NT 523 Gospel of John 3

This course begins with an investigation of the authorship, date, circumstances of writing, and composition of the Fourth Gospel. A narrative reading of the book's content is offered which gives due attention to the Gospel's structure, story line, plot development, and major characters. Passages dealing with the roles of women, healing, holiness, the Holy Spirit, and footwashing receive detailed attention. (Greek & English credit available)

NT 524 Acts 3

This course is an exegetical study of the Acts of the Apostles. After a brief look at matters of introduction, attention is concentrated on the history and theology of the early church, especially as these are relevant for the Pentecostal faith. (Greek & English credit available)

NT 525 Romans 3

An exegetical study of Paul's thought and doctrine as articulated in this, the greatest of his epistles. The course is designed to give a brief overview of the history of the scholarship on Romans and to discuss such inquiries as authorship, date, and circumstances of the writing of the epistle. The emphasis is on the theology of the epistle and its contemporary applications. (Greek & English credit available)

NT 526 1 Corinthians 3

This letter is studied under the following inquiries: authorship, date, circumstances of writing, and conditions in Corinth. Emphasis is given to its theology, its Pentecostal emphases, and the relevance of its theological principles for the contemporary church, especially in reference to spiritual gifts. (Greek & English credit available)

NT 527 2 Corinthians 3

This letter is studied under the following inquiries: authorship, date, circumstances of writing, and conditions in Corinth. Emphasis is given to its theology, its Pentecostal emphases, and the relevance of its theological principles for the contemporary church. (Greek & English credit available)

NT 528 Galatians 3

An exegetical study of the epistle in light of such inquiries as its religious and historical background, date and purpose. Special emphasis will be placed on basic theological concepts: grace, law, justification, sanctification, etc. (Greek & English credit available)

NT 530 Philippians 3

The course is an exegetical study of Paul's letter to the Philippians. It includes introductory and background analysis, investigation of interpretive problems, and survey of the contents as well as key theological themes. This course also includes an examination of the theological and practical relevance of Philippians for Christian living and ministry. (Greek & English credit available)

NT 534 E/G Pastoral Epistles 3

The course is an exegetical study of the Pastoral Epistles — 1 and 2 Timothy, and Titus. It also covers introductory, background analysis, interpretive problems, and survey of the contents as well as key theological themes. This course also includes an examination of the theological and practical relevance of the Pastorals for society and the church, and church leadership. (Greek & English credit available)

NT 539 Hebrews 3

This book is studied under the following inquiries: date, circumstances of writing and composition. Particular attention is given to the author's use of the Old Testament, his hermeneutical concerns, and the following issues of continuing relevance: the priesthood of believers, Jewish-Christian relations, perseverance, etc. The study emphasizes the unique theological perspective of the book. (Greek & English credit available)

NT 540 James 3

This course studies in detail the introductory material: authorship, date, and circumstances of writing. It also is an expository study of the entire book. (Greek & English credit available)

NT 542 1, 2 & 3 John 3

This course examines the provenance, structure, message, theological emphases, and contemporary significance of the Johannine epistles. Special consideration is given to the relationship of these epistles to the Fourth Gospel and the Johannine community. A careful reading of the Greek text of the epistles constitutes a major portion of the course.

NT 543 Jude 1

This epistle is studied under the following inquiries: authorship, date, provenance, and destination. The place of Jude in the early church is considered. Jude's use of apocryphal literature is also addressed.

NT 544 Revelation 3

This course begins with an examination of the structure, nature, provenance, and effective history of the Apocalypse. A careful reading of the text of the Apocalypse follows, which is a major focus of the course. The major theological emphases of the Apocalypse are also discussed in detail. (Greek & English credit available)

New Testament Theology

NT 560 Life and Teaching of Jesus 3

This course examines significant issues and events in the life and teaching of Jesus. The "Historical Jesus" discussion is addressed. Particular themes in the teaching of Jesus are given special consideration. Titles, creeds, and confessions of faith receive attention. (Prerequisite: A course in one of the Gospels.)

NT 561 Footwashing 1

This course examines the footwashing account found in John 13:1-20. The study of the topic includes: literary and critical questions concerning John 13:1-20, a historical overview of footwashing in Graeco-Roman and Jewish contexts, an exegetical analysis of John 13:1-20, a survey of the practice of footwashing in the early church, and reflection upon the implications of this study for contemporary worship.

NT 562 The Devil, Disease and Deliverance 1

This course examines the relationship between illness and its origins in the writings of the New Testament. The methodology of the course involves several steps. First, the texts relevant to the theme are identified within the work of specific New Testament writers or schools of writers. Second, the pertinent passages are examined, primarily by means of literary analysis, to discover the text's contribution to this enquiry. Third, a summary of the results of the individual investigations within a given document or groups of documents is provided, which seeks to offer an initial systematic arrangement of the findings. Fourth, the contributions of the various writers are then compared in order to identify the unity of thought on this topic within the diversity of the New Testament documents. Fifth, the implications of this study for Pentecostal theology and ministry are identified.

NT 564 Mark 16 1

Though often observed that the Acts narrative is the defining paradigm for Pentecostal doctrine and practice, in point of fact Mark 16.9-20 functions as the 'litmus test' of the early Pentecostal Movement's fulfilling of the apostolic mandates given by Jesus and carried out by the church. Despite the well-known text critical problems surrounding the passage, the place of Mark 16.9-20 was unrivaled within the early Pentecostal literature in position and significance. Drawing on methodological approaches including, textual criticism, literary analysis, canonical criticism, and Wirkungsgeschichte, this course seeks to reappropriate Mark 16.9-20 in Pentecostal theology and practice.

NT 565 The Theology of Paul 3

This course studies the distinctive contributions of the Apostle Paul to New Testament theology. Special attention is given to the question of Hellenistic and Jewish influences on Paul's thought and their continued influence on contemporary Issues.

NT 566 Philemon 1

This course examines Paul's letter to Philemon. It is an opportunity to study in depth one of the most interesting and timely documents of the New Testament that not only is one of the shortest "books" in the New Testament, but also shares some similarities and exhibits many differences to other extant Pauline epistles. Emphasis will be placed on the literary structure and rhetorical strategy and the specific issues addressed in Philemon. Particular attention will be given to the social context of Philemon and how this affects his strategy in addressing the social and theological issues that arose in the letter.

A selected topic related to New Testament theology is treated each time these seminars are offered:

NT 584-589 Research in New Testament Theology 1

NT 590-594 Research in New Testament Theology 2

NT 595-599 Research in New Testament Theology 3

HISTORICAL AND THEOLOGICAL STUDIES (600-699)

The Word has come down to the present day through the mediation of the Church, and the Church's understanding of the Word has influenced its own history and theology in each age. As students become acquainted with the history of the Church as an institution and with the historical development of Christian doctrine, they gain insight from the past for dealing with theology in this day, and are thus able to develop a personal theological position which is both sound and biblical and which will serve to inform and to undergird their ministry.

Historical Studies

HS 601 History of the Christian Church 3

This course is a survey of church history from the New Testament to the modern period. It will familiarize the student with the flow of that history, give emphasis to the main figures and events, developments in the church's worship, teaching, and lifestyle.

HS 610 The Early Church 3

This course studies the early church through the first five hundred (500) years of its history, with emphasis on its literature, life, and theology. Topics for discussion will include: the organization and administration of the church, the role of the Holy Spirit, persecutions and martyrdom, Christian art, the emergence of monasticism, heretical sects, apocryphal literature and the piety of the common Christian. (Cross listed with HT601)

HS 620 Reformation 3

This course is a study of the Reformation in Germany, Switzerland, and England and focuses on the lives and work of the major reformers with a view toward understanding how these currents and issues are alive and may influence the modern Pentecostal movement.

HS 630 United States Church History: 1607-1820 1

This course is a study of the various branches of the church movements in United States history from 1607 to 1820. There were five principal branches of Christianity in the early history of the United States: Lutheran, Reformed, Anglican, Anabaptist and Catholic. This course focuses on the major personalities and currents of thought during this formative period of Christianity in the United States and its relevance to the church of today.

HS 631 Church History in the United States: 1820-Present 1

This course is a study of the various branches of the church movements in United States history from 1820 to the present. Both the Roman Catholics and the Protestants experience growth and changes, influenced by urbanization, industrialization and technological advances, philosophical and religious challenges, but most of all by revivals. This course will focus on the major personalities and currents of thought during this period of change.

HS 640 The Holiness-Pentecostal Movement 3

This course offers a sociological, theological and historical overview and analysis of the roots and origins of the Holiness-Pentecostal movement. An informed Pentecostal judgment will be developed on the relation of this movement to the Spirit movements in Protestant and Roman Catholic churches.

HS/HT 643 History and Theology of the Wesleyan Holiness Pentecostal Movements 3

An exploration of the history and theology of the Wesleyan, Holiness, Pentecostal, and Charismatic movements with special attention given to the formation and development of theological distinctives and their significance in ecumenical conversation.

HS 650 Church of God History and Polity 3

The history component of this course deals with the cultural and theological influences, founders, historical development, major disruption in 1923, and the contemporary denomination. The policy component examines the biblical pattern of church polity and is designed to give the student a working knowledge of the Church of God in its local, district, state, national, and international dimensions.

Historical Theology

HT 601 Historical Theology I 3

This course offers an overview and analysis of the doctrinal and theological history of the church in its different cultural settings from the apostolic age up to the Reformation. Primary source documents and contemporary illustrations will supplement the lectures and text materials. The aim of the course is to help the student to become historically informed in the history of doctrine so as to be able to understand and apply biblical teaching to the needs of the church and world of today. (Fall)

HT 602 Historical Theology II 3

A continuation of HT 601 through the 20th century with special attention given to the Holiness-Pentecostal movement. The various contemporary theologies will be critiqued from a Pentecostal perspective. (Spring)

HT/TS 603 Theology of John Wesley 3

The Church of God has deep Wesleyan roots which need to be recovered. The life and teaching of John Wesley will be assessed by means of biographies, sermons and letters. We will consider how Wesley's integration of theology and polity may inform and shape modern Pentecostal practice. (C-L)

HT 607 Historical Theology 3

This course offers an overview and analysis of the doctrinal and theological history of the church in its different cultural settings from the apostolic age up to the Reformation. Primary source documents and contemporary illustrations will supplement the lectures and text materials. The aim of the course is to help the student to become historically informed in the history of doctrine so as to be able to understand and apply biblical teaching to the needs of the church and world of today.

HT 610 The Early Church 3

This course studies the early church through the first five hundred (500) years of its history, with emphasis on its literature, life and theology. Topics for discussion will include: the organization and administration of the church, the role of the Holy Spirit, persecutions and martyrdom, Christian art, the emergence of monasticism, heretical sects, apocryphal literature and the piety of the common Christian. (Cross listed with HS610)

HT 611 Spiritual Gifts of the 3rd Century 3

HT/CF/ML 730 Leading Practices of Worship and Discipleship 3

Students will be engaged in an interdisciplinary process of reflection and dialogue on constitutive practices of Pentecostal discipleship and worship in the new missional context. Insights from early Pentecostalism will be integrated with contextual analysis for the purpose of discerning effective missional models. Students will develop an integrated plan for worship and discipleship informed by their context and theological orientation. (C-L)

HT 680 Contemporary Theology 3

This course is designed to give a basic introduction to, and survey of, the broad field of twentieth-century theology. Certain theologians are selected in order to study their contributions and influence on contemporary theological thinking.

HT 688 Women in Pentecostalism 1

This course seeks to survey briefly the theological and ministerial contributions of women ministers in the Pentecostal tradition. Special attention will be given to pastors, teachers, evangelists, and missionaries – especially those whose ministry was prominent in the earliest period of the Pentecostal Movement.

HT 689 Oneness Pentecostalism 1

This course seeks to examine the development of Oneness Pentecostal theology. The emergence of the "New Issue" and its inevitable theological conclusions will be surveyed.

The following courses give students an opportunity to do research in selected areas of historical theology:

Christian Doctrine

TS 601 Pentecostal Spirituality-Theology I 3

This course will offer a synthesis of biblical, historical, and practical components and will utilize both classical formulations of the faith and contemporary case studies. After an initial consideration of the nature and task of theology, the following doctrines will be considered: God, man, Christ, and the Holy Spirit. The relation of theology to other disciplines will be discussed at different points throughout the course. (Fall)

TS 602 Pentecostal Spirituality-Theology II 3

A continuation of TS 601, this course will develop the doctrines of Salvation, the Church, and Last Things. The study will culminate in the production of a personal statement of belief (credo) for use in practical ministry and final evaluation of each student. (Spring)

TS/HT 603 Theology of John Wesley 3

The Church of God has deep Wesleyan roots which need to be recovered. The life and teaching of John Wesley will be assessed by means of biographies, sermons and letters. We will consider how Wesley's integration of theology and polity may inform and shape modern Pentecostal practice. (C-L)

TS 604 Theology of Prayer 1

This course is designed to offer students opportunity for open theological dialogues on the theological significance of prayer in the life of Christian faith. By way of lectures and class discussions on the assigned readings, students will explore distinctive features of Christian prayer as they relate to the particular formation of Christian heart and life. The course aims to unearth the dynamic relationality between prayerful living and theological understanding that readily engages the multifarious socio-cultural contexts in which one is located.

- TS 606 Introduction to Christian Doctrine 3
This course is designed to offer a holistic doctrinal formation in the Pentecostal tradition that traces its theological root in, and aligns its theological explorations with, the distinctive trajectories associated with the Wesleyan and Holiness movements. The course intends to provide a comprehensive, graduate-level, introduction to Christian doctrine while taking seriously the doxological nature of the work of theology; hence, the doctrinal formation envisioned in this course would be constructive in nature, mapping out, and developing, a Wesleyan-Holiness-Pentecostal theology that is holistically knitted with the faith grammars and practices distinctive of Pentecostal spirituality. Such a theology responds to classical formulations of the Christian faith, as well as contemporary articulations of Christian doctrine, while seeking to be pastorally faithful and socially relevant in a changing world.
- TS 607 Pentecostal Theology and Spirituality 3
This course will offer a synthesis of biblical, historical, and practical components and will utilize both classical formulations of the faith and contemporary case studies. After an initial consideration of the nature and task of theology, the following doctrines will be considered: God, man, Christ, and the Holy Spirit. The relation of theology to other disciplines will be discussed at different points throughout the course. This course will also develop the doctrines of Salvation, the Church, and Last Things. The study will culminate in the production of a personal statement of belief (credo) for use in practical ministry and final evaluation of each student.
- TS 620 Doctrine of Christ 3
The participants in this course will study the person and work of Jesus Christ and will examine the history of the controversies in this area. The atoning work is considered in terms of the Old Testament preparation, the New Testament enactment and the Church's proclamation.
- TS 630 Theology of the Holy Spirit 3
This course is a study of the person and work of the Holy Spirit with special emphasis on the Pentecostal experience from the perspective of classical Pentecostalism. This course seeks to enable the student to assess issues raised by contemporary Spirit movements.

TS 640 Doctrine of Salvation 3

The participants will study the doctrine of salvation and focus on the Biblical presentation and modern theological developments of the same.

TS 641 Doctrine of Holiness 3

The aim of this course will be to facilitate a reappropriation and/or deepening of the understanding and experience associated with the doctrine of sanctification. Other Christian positions will be assessed in relation to typical Holiness-Pentecostal concerns. Freudian and Marxist insights will be used to develop an approach which takes seriously individual and social evil. Implications for the doctrine of salvation, church discipline, church structure, and church policies will be worked out by means of readings, discussions, case studies, research and lectures.

TS 642 Doctrine of Divine Healing 3

An examination of the theological and historical development of the doctrine and practice of divine healing from Biblical period to the present. Emphasis is placed upon its significance for the 19th century Healing Movement and the 20th century Pentecostal-Charismatic movements. Special attention is given to the construction of a Pentecostal theology of healing.

TS 650 Ecclesiology: Doctrine of the Church 3

This course will study the biblical doctrine of the church in a historical and theological perspective. Emphasis will be given to the models and the images of the Church throughout history and how these may enrich one's understanding and experience of the church today.

TS 660 Doctrine of the Last Things 3

A biblical view of last things is related to contemporary options in eschatology. The course seeks to provide a basis for a balanced, hopeful eschatological doctrine, and a critique of modern themes.

TS 670 Philosophy for Understanding Theology 3

TS 694-695 Research in Systematic Theology 2

TS 696-699 Research in Systematic Theology 3

STUDIES IN THE LIFE AND MINISTRY OF THE CHURCH

The Church must live and minister in today's world, with all of its cultural and ethnic variations, as well as its uncertainties, problems and hurts. Through the insights of theology and the social sciences the student is encouraged to come to grips with what it means to be the people of God in this age in one's own cultural context. At the same time, the ministry of the Church in today's world is studied from different perspectives, using different methods of teaching, including classroom instruction, supervision of ministry, and internship for the purpose of developing, in the student, skills and competence for ministry.

Life and Ministry of the Church

LC 701 Religion and Culture 3

This course is an introduction to the sociological analysis of religious behavior and the social forces influencing the church and Christian lifestyles. Emphasis will be given to the study of social change and the church, social class, religious movements, and the analysis of religious roles.

LC/TS 680 Christian Ethics: Pentecostal Theology 3

for Social Engagement

This course is a study of the biblical, historical, philosophical and theological dimensions of Christian ethics. A Pentecostal theological ethic will be applied to various ethical problems in church, society, home, and individuals. (C-L)

LC 703 Ministers' Week 1

An annual, topical seminar offered in the Spring. Discipleship and Christian Formation.

CF 701 Foundations for Christian Formation 3

This course will investigate the biblical, theological and historical foundations for Christian formation. Established approaches to Christian nurture will be placed in dialogue with Pentecostal expressions of conversion, salvation, sanctification, baptism in the Holy Spirit, and growth within the Body of Christ. The nature of religious instruction will be considered. Biblical and historical models of discipleship will be explored and compared with contemporary Models.

CF 702 Inductive Bible Study 3

This course is designed to acquaint the student with the inductive approach to the study of the Bible in the vernacular. Emphasis is placed on developing skills necessary to do a thorough and systematic study of a book of the Bible. The book of Mark is utilized as an example of this method.

CF/CO 703 Human Growth and Transformation 3

Students will study theories of human growth and transformation in order to understand their implications for Christian discipleship. The Freudian tradition and object-relations theory will be explored as well as the psycho-social theory of Erik Erikson. Developmental theories espoused by Jean Piaget, Lawrence Kohlberg and James Fowler will be investigated. The course includes The expanded Family Life Cycle (individual, family and social perspectives) looking at the normal and abnormal developmental patterns of individuals and families. The course will investigate life-span and personality development within cultural context. These theories will be placed in dialogue with research concerning religious transformation, noting in particular the work of James Loder. The nature of growth and transformation from a Wesleyan/Pentecostal perspective will be explored.

CF 704 The Pedagogy of the Holy Spirit 3

In this course, students will explore the pedagogical nature and activities of the Holy Spirit from the perspective of historical theology. The premise of the course is that the Johannine image of the Paraclete as teacher must be taken seriously in theological studies. The method of inquiry will be to place fundamental issues in education into dialogue with the theological question. Emphasis will be placed upon early Christian (ante-Nicene) images of the Spirit as well as movements and individuals. Special attention will also be given to the critique of Pentecostal-Charismatic perceptions of the pedagogical presence of the Holy Spirit.

CF 711 Spiritual Direction 1

A model for providing one-on-one spiritual direction will be studied. Students will be required to enter into a relationship with someone for whom they provide spiritual direction throughout the semester. Case studies out of these experiences will be presented to the class.

CF 712 Small Group Ministries 1

An experience-based course designed to supervise students in small group discipleship experiences. Students are required to participate in a covenant based group either in their local congregation or at the seminary. This group must have an established covenant of participation; it must meet on a weekly basis; and it must include dimensions of accountability and shared ministry. Class time will be given to guided reflection on these experiences, other ministerial activities, and how they interrelate. (It is recommended that this course be taken prior to enrollment in CF 713.)

CF 713 Small Group Leadership 1

Principles of leadership for small group ministry will be introduced. Students will be expected to lead a faith-based small group throughout the semester and present case studies out of those experiences. (Prerequisite: CF712)

CF/CO 715 Counseling Youth 3

This course will explore the psychosocial development of youth between the ages of ten and twenty five as a foundation for providing pastoral care and counseling. Approaches to counseling youth will be overviewed and methods of crises counseling will be examined. Emphasis will be placed on issues common to today's youth, including grief brought on by death and divorce, sexual identity and behavior, relational stresses, substance abuse, and physical, emotional and sexual abuse. (C-L)

CF 720 Teaching the Word 3

This course will deal with the theory and practice of the teaching-learning process, including a survey of the teaching ministry of Jesus. The Christian pastor and leader's role in teaching the Bible will be studied as well as techniques and methodologies of teaching. Teaching demonstrations will be Required.

CF/ML 721 Church Administration and Leadership 3

This course is designed to consider administrative and leadership principles and practices and relate these local church organizational needs. Church management/leadership is examined within the total context of the practice of ministry and the mission of the Church in the world, and systems theory is explored in contrast to other organizational theories. Models of organization and leadership are examined and developed from a Pentecostal context.

CF 722 The Disciple Making Pastor 3

This course is designed to help the student develop a critical appreciation of the teaching ministry of the Christian pastor. Emphasis will be placed upon the Biblical and historical foundations for understanding the pastor as teacher. Students will study and compare the approaches of Origen, Augustine, Martin Luther, John Wesley, and others. Field research will be conducted in order to assess the instructional-formatinal impact of contemporary models of pastoral ministry.

CF/HT/ML 730 Leading Practices of Worship and Discipleship 3

Students will be engaged in an interdisciplinary process of reflection and dialogue on constitutive practices of Pentecostal discipleship and worship in the new missional context. Insights from early Pentecostalism will be integrated with contextual analysis for the purpose of discerning effective missional models. Students will develop an integrated plan for worship and discipleship informed by their context and theological orientation.

CF/ML 727 Formational Leadership 3

This course is intended to help students develop a biblical model for administering discipleship ministries of the church. Various theories of educational administration will be reviewed and critiqued. Emphasis will be placed on the manner in which the theories are practiced. Students will complete a systemic evaluation of a local church educational program. (C-L)

CF/CO/ML/WM 736 Intercultural Counseling 3

This course is designed to prepare the students to form a solid and sound Biblical theology of cross-cultural communication and counseling, and to do the work of intercultural counseling in a global village and our pluralistic societies. It integrates and utilizes the latest interdisciplinary insights from counseling, psychology, theology, missiology, and social anthropology. It includes three broad areas: spiritual attention, cultural aptitude, and personal attributes that communicate caring and practical approaches in intercultural counseling.

CF/CO 741 Ministry with Families 3

This course introduces family ministry in the context of the Pentecostal congregation. Students will study shifting cultural understandings of the role of families in society. Stress will be placed on the biblical model of families in the family of God. Consideration will be given to a systemic model for ministry to families. Emphasis will be placed on the responsibilities of parents and pastors for the development of healthy and mature family systems. (C-L)

CF 750 Children of the Kingdom 3

This course will help students to explore, from the Pentecostal perspective, the role of children in the kingdom of God. Consideration will be given to the manner in which they should participate in the life of the community of faith. Emphasis will be placed upon the distinctiveness of Pentecostal catechesis and the appropriate manner of transmitting the Pentecostal story to future Generations.

CF 751 Discipling Children 3

This course builds on modern theories of childhood development and contemporary models for children's ministry in light of Scriptural foundations. The course will provide an introduction to current resources and methods for teaching children in the church.

CF/CO 752 Ministry With Special Needs Children 3

and Their Families

This course overviews a Biblical/systemic model for the relationship between families and the church. The questions of why people suffer, how they grieve and how the church should respond to personal suffering will be considered. Three groups of special needs will be addressed: children with life-threatening diseases (AIDS, Leukemia, CF, etc.), children with physical handicaps and children with emotional and mental disabilities. Emphasis will be placed on practical ways for the church to minister to these children and their families. (C-L)

CF 760 Ministry With Youth in the Postmodern Context 3

This course will deal with various aspects of ministering with youth. Adolescent needs and characteristics will be surveyed. Programs and methods of ministering with youth will be evaluated from the perspective of theological implications and effectiveness.

CF 761 Discipling Youth 3

This course will enable students to become acquainted with models for ministering to youth as individuals. The development of one-on-one relationships which facilitate spiritual growth and problem-resolution will be stressed.

CF 762 Denominational Youth Ministries 3

This course will introduce the student to the structure, purpose, curriculum and function of the various denominational youth programs including state youth camps, Teen Talent, Christian Service Brigade, Young Ladies Ministries (YLM), STEP Programs, Sunday School and Family Training Hour.

Ministry Leadership

ML 701 Ministry of the Word 3

The emphasis of this course is on the preparation for preaching and the oral presentation of the gospel of Christ. There is a two-fold thrust of the course: the preparation and delivery of sermons and the preparation and delivery of classroom presentations. The course includes classroom and laboratory Experience.

ML 702 Expository Preaching 3

This course is concerned with the preparation of effective expository sermons which are developed from assigned passages of Scripture. Special emphasis is placed on how the Bible speaks to contemporary needs.

ML 705-710 Expository Preaching - Book Studies (English) 3

In this course, a book of the Bible will be studied in order to understand its structure, content, theology and contemporary relevance. A series of expository sermons will be developed from that book. The following books are offered, one each semester, over a two-year cycle: Amos-Hosea, Psalms, Gospel of John, Gospel of Mark, and Acts.

ML 711 Contemporary Models of Preaching 3

This course is designed to introduce various contemporary models of preaching in theory and to give the students the opportunity to practice these various models. Students should acquire a number of ways of proclamation to enhance their pulpit ministry and to present biblical and topical sermons within the new models studied. Emphasis will be upon sermon structure.

ML 712 Preaching from the Old Testament 3

This course focuses upon the place of the Old Testament in the Christian pulpit. It explores the unique challenges and the distinct opportunity that the Old Testament presents to the preacher. The course surveys the historical place of the Old Testament in Christian preaching and presents a Pentecostal hermeneutic for preaching from the Old Testament. This hermeneutic is then applied to the various genre that are found in the Old Testament, e.g., narrative, psalms, wisdom, legal material, prophecy and apocalyptic.

ML 716 Survey of Leadership Concepts, 3

Theories, and Practices

This course represents the Seminary's introductory course on Leadership. Christian leadership and specifically Pentecostal leadership paradigmatically and contextually reside in the person more than the process. Encouraging students to reflect on 21st-century leadership from a Pentecostal paradigm, therefore, requires thinking critically, engaging dialogue, and considering various contemporary models, theories, and concepts of leadership. Additionally, the course will promote skill development and encourage students to assess their current leadership behaviors.

ML 720 Pastoral Ministries 3

This course is designed to help the student integrate the principles of Scripture with the functional roles of the pastor so as to develop a theology of ministry which will undergird and guide him/her in the various pastoral roles. Special attention is given to the theological foundations of pastoral care, leadership and administration.

ML/CF 721 Church Administration and Leadership 3

This course is designed to consider administrative and leadership principles and practices and relate these local church organizational needs. Church management/leadership is examined within the total context of the practice of ministry and the mission of the Church in the world, and systems theory is explored in contrast to other organizational theories. Models of organization and leadership are examined and developed from a Pentecostal context.

ML 722 Church Leadership 3

This course studies the theological, cultural, historical and contextual dimensions of leadership identification, emergency and development within the church in order to prepare those who are, or intend to be, involved in leadership selection, training, deployment and development. The course culminates in a study of the leadership selection process as it relates to oneself and to another Pentecostal leader.

ML 723 Multiple Staff Ministries 3

Students will explore various dimensions of ministry in a multiple staff context. Emphasis will be placed on biblical and theological foundations for shared ministry. Individual ministry gifts will be assessed for implication for ministry with others. Relationships among staff members, supervisors and peers on the staff will be studied as these affect ministry.

ML 724 Leadership Training Models 3

This course focuses on the integration of biblical and theoretical approaches to the processes of identifying, selecting, training and deploying Christian leaders. Many different approaches are identified and analyzed under the broad categories of formal and informal; but the course is structured around two basic models. Careful attention (and classroom involvement) is given to the process of spiritual formation in leadership training.

ML 725 Church Music and Worship 3

This course looks first at the biblical and theological roots of worship and various biblical directives with respect to worship. Then follows a brief history of worship. The rest of the course consists of a detailed study of the individual elements of worship and the organizing principles which may be used to unify worship. Sensitivity to the guidance of the Spirit is emphasized as well a special attention given to the crucial importance of music in Pentecostal worship.

ML 726 Church, Pastor, and the Law 3

This course is designed to develop techniques in the analytical, decision-making capacity of the student and to acquaint the student with the basic practical principles of law which affects the pastor and the church.

ML/CF 727 Formational Leadership 3

This course is intended to help students to develop a biblical model for administering discipleship ministries of the church. Various theories of educational administration will be reviewed and critiqued. Emphasis will be placed on the manner in which the theories are practiced. Students will complete a systemic evaluation of a local church educational program.

ML 728 Developing Congregational Prayer Ministry 3

This course focuses on prayer in its biblical, spiritual, and missional dimensions, with a view toward personal spirituality and ministry practice. The study examines notable prayer movements and a variety of prayer ministry models. Course work includes reading assignments; small group exercises; prayer assignments; reflective writing; and the crafting of strategies for applying prayer as a personal discipline and as a function of ministry.

ML/HT/CF 730 Leading Practices of Worship and Discipleship 3

Students will be engaged in an interdisciplinary process of reflection and dialogue on constitutive practices of Pentecostal discipleship and worship in the new missional context. Insights from early Pentecostalism will be integrated with contextual analysis for the purpose of discerning effective missional models. Students will develop an integrated plan for worship and discipleship informed by their context and theological orientation.

ML/CO/CF/WM 736 Intercultural Counseling 3

This course is designed to prepare the students to form a solid and sound Biblical theology of cross-cultural communication and counseling, and to do the work of intercultural counseling in a global village and our pluralistic societies. It integrates and utilizes the latest interdisciplinary insights from counseling, psychology, theology, missiology, and social anthropology. It includes three broad areas: spiritual attention, cultural aptitude, and personal attributes that communicate caring and practical approaches in intercultural counseling.

ML 740 Evangelism and Renewal 3

This course studies the characteristics of a healthy, growing church and seeks to discover those principles of renewal which produce vitality. Special attention is given to the reciprocal relationship of evangelism and renewal.

ML 741 Church Growth 3

This course is a study of the theology and principles of church growth and the scientific method of diagnosing the growth and development of individual churches. Missions, evangelism, church planning and church development are brought together into a strategy for church growth.

ML 742 Church Planting 3

This course offers study of the theological, sociological and practical dimensions of starting new churches, including the development of a strategy for beginning a new church. This course is designed to instruct students about how a church may be established, with particular reference to the ecclesiology of the Church of God.

ML/CO 750 Conflict Ministry 3

This course is designed for those who wish to acquire a basic understanding of the dynamics and systemic sources of conflict and skills for managing, resolving and transforming conflict. The subject matter will provide insights and strategies for dealing with interpersonal and group conflicts in the family, church, and larger society. The course will also be concerned with the development of an adequate and appropriate theology of forgiveness, reconciliation and peacemaking from a Pentecostal context. The student will be required to make practical application and integration through the use of survey analysis, case studies, role play, class presentations, written assignments and personal reflection.

ML 753 Cross-Cultural Ministries in North America 3

The focus of this course is to raise awareness concerning the growing cultural diversity in North America; to foster an appreciation for this diversity; and to introduce students to the strategy of inculturation (as opposed to colonialism) as solidarity for participation with diverse populations for mission and ministry. Strategies will be founded on biblical theological truths that address cross cultural relationships and responsibilities.

ML/WM 760 Foundations for Wholistic Mission 3

This course is designed to introduce students to wholistic models of mission that take seriously current socio-economic-political issues, philosophical and theological ideologies, cultural distinctives, and ethnic diversity in North America and across the world. A theology of wholistic mission from a Biblical base will be developed from which practical strategies for ministry will be Derived.

ML 779 CAPSTONE: MACM-Ministry Leadership 1

ML 782 Urban Practicum 3

The uniqueness of the spiritual, social, economic, educational and emotional needs of urban dwellers will be addressed through practical involvement in urban ministry. Qualified urban ministry leaders will supplement practical involvement through reading and supervision. Special attention will be given to acquainting the student with the struggles of the inner city poor. Three hundred (300) hours of urban ministry involvement are required.

ML/CF 784 Coaching, Mentoring, 3

and Leadership Development

This course is designed to provide participants with a basic orientation to coaching and mentoring for leadership development. Contemporary practices of coaching and mentoring will be evaluated from biblical-historical, theological, and formational perspectives. Various discipleship strategies and ministry development processes employed in coaching and mentoring will be examined. Participants will assess their current coaching/mentoring practice and design and implement a personal coach/mentor development plan. Involvement in some coach/mentor relationship or experience is required for this course.

The following three research courses give students an opportunity to research in a selected area of evangelism/pastoral ministry.

ML 785 Research: Topics in Evangelism/Ministry 1
Leadership

ML 786-789 Research: Topics in Evangelism/Ministry 2
Leadership

ML 790-794 Research: Topics in Evangelism/Ministry 3
Leadership

ML 795 Contemporary Issues in Pentecostal Ministry 3

The course will involve the study and critical analysis of contemporary society and issues that define our culture. Society's impact on the formation of beliefs and values will be examined, along with how these values, systems, and structures form the context for Pentecostal ministry in the United States and the world today and provide insights and direction for contemporary Pentecostal witness and ministry. Particular attention will be given to the interaction between social forces and Pentecostal pastoral care, with a focus on narcissism, guilt, shame and forgiveness.

ML 797 Urban Mission Area Studies 3

This course is a guided research course that allows the student to investigate a specific urban demographic area. Research will focus on urban area history, culture, people groups, socio-economic issues, structures, systems, and development of the Christian church. This information will inform critique and response to the selected area's distinct ethos. The end result of the research will be the formulation of a ministry plan that addresses the specific needs of the area studied.

ML 798 Leading and Mobilizing Laity 3

This course will involve the study of theological biblical, historical and behavioral perspectives of issues related to the ministry of laity in a local/Pentecostal church setting. Topics will include the persistence of "clericalism", the concept of co-responsibility in the Body of Christ, the possession and utilization of gifts, the meaning of call and ordination, empowering relations between "laity" and "clergy," and development of lay ministries through equipping and mobilization.
